Kay's Kitchen

Time goes by so quickly, the holiday season is right here! It is not too early to start Thanksgiving and Christmas baking. Frost cakes, puddings, and pecan cakes should be made now so they can ripen. Too, there are things that can be made now and frozen to be used during the holidays. If you do this, it will make the holiday much more enjoyable. Here are a few recipes that will make the Thanksgiving dinner a bit special.
