Mrs. W. R. Bustin Jr. of Frankfort and her mother, Mrs. Frank Henry were in Carlisle on Tuesday on business.

terpretation of "Salome" in the exhibition is a pivotal work in the artist's career and is considered a masterpiece of the Symbolist Movement.

American artists are well represented in the exhibition and they range from a Gilbert Stuart portrait of George Washington to John Singer Sargent's powerful "nude" painting, "The Porzi at Home," Mary Cassatt's lyrical "Summer" and a new addition to the collection, Andrew Wyeth's "Daydream," a tempera-on-wood.

Dr. Hammer's two latest acquisitions will be exhibited for the first time with the collection in Kentucky. A small oil on canvas by Edvard Munch, "Portrait of Alice Lezowski," and a colorful "Flowers in the Sunlight" by James Ensor reflect Dr. Hammer's continuing interest in building his collection.

The UK Museum will be open for the exhibition daily except Monday and the university holidays of Thanksgiving, Christmas, New Year's Eve and New Year's Day.

Museum hours will be from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. during the exhibition in Frankfort.

The exhibition is sponsored by the Armand Hammer Foundation. Dr. Hammer, the world renowned industrialist, is represented by five major works including a portrait of himself, "Portrait of a Man of the Roman Holding a Black Hat" ca. 1677, the great French landscape painter, Camille Corot, is represented by five works including a self-portrait.

Key Impressionist works include a graphic composition by Renoir, "Two Girls Reading," a self-portrait by Boudin, landscapes by Monet and Cezanne, and a Placido type by Ingres.

Biblical opera, 'Samson and Delilah,' comes to KET

The Bible as opera comes to television in the San Francisco Opera production "Samson and Delilah" premieres Monday, Nov. 22 at 9 p.m. on KET.

The powerful retelling of the biblical tale, a presentation of the "Great Performances" series, stars Shirley Verrett and Placido Domingo in the title roles. The cast also features dramatic soprano Liana Sgarbi, Arnold Volkstein as the Governor of Gaza, and Kevin Lang as the Old Hebrew in the ancient story of strength, seduction, betrayal and redemption. The stage production is directed by Nicholas Joel and includes such social effects as participating in solar eclipses, a series of storms and exploding fires and the climactic destruction of the Temple of Dagon, in which Placido Domingo, as Samson, literally brings down the house.

In Act One of the opera, Samson is endowed with supernatural strength and called upon by God to lead the Hebrews against their persecutors, the Philistines. In Act Two, the seductive Delilah tempts Samson to learn the secret of his strength and later entraps him. In the final act, Samson, now weak and helpless before his

Blue Cross (Blue Shield) Medicare Supplement Programs

New member opportunity... supplement your Medicare with as much as $250,000 lifetime coverage.

If you're 65 or over, or soon will be, then you owe it to yourself to look into the benefits of Blue Cross and Blue Shield Medicare Supplement Programs.

As you probably know, with Medicare there are expenses not fully covered. And a simple completed form may save you with a Plan of Choice. There's only one way to compare our Medicare Supplement Programs — they're worth as much as $250,000 for catastrophic coverage.

These programs provide additional benefits, for an annual deductible is met, for physicians charges, hospital services, skilled nursing facilities, and more.

An application is subject to health care questions and, if accepted, there is a 90-day waiting period for certain benefits.

Prescription Drug Coverage

The High Medical Medicare Supplement Plan provides prescription drug benefits for as little as $100.00 per calendar year. And you'll be able to pay for your drugs at the rate of 80% after a separate deductible of $500 per calendar year.
