Ten week wait for tax refunds

Kentucky taxpayers who file 1981 state tax returns claiming a refund should wait at least 10 weeks to contact the Kentucky Department of Revenue about their refund. Revenue Commissioner Tim Geary announced, "Refunds get top priority and are processed as quickly as possible," Geary said.

Taxpayers who file early returns may get refunds in less than 10 weeks, unless the taxpayer made an error of some sort, Geary said.

Persons filing returns after April 3 should wait until after July 1 to contact the department about a refund. Returns for 1981 are due April 15.
