

Opinion

The depression mongers

In the U.S. headed for a depression? The many voices are now sounding that alarm, or at least posing the question...

Agree or not Governor's worst fault is refusal to admit mistakes by C. Van Caren While the 1962 legislative session roiled up in a name-calling contest between the legislature and Gov. John Y. Brown Jr.'s administration...

Speculation about depression is misplaced. What brought on the Great Depression of the '30s was in large part the dramatic decline in the money supply and the Federal Reserve System's failure to rescue the banking system...

Down Memory Lane Accommodating thieves return stolen automobile

Thursday, April 26, 1962 The employees of the Supply Management Division, Lexington, Signal Dept., gave a party at the home of Mrs. Mayne K. Reed Henry, who retired after 23 years' service with the Dept. of War...

Yet some faint rays of light seem to be impending courts are a must by Anthony Hartigan judiciary. The framers of the Constitution knew that public justice was important to the people...

Op-Ed page Someday those murdered grasses... may come back and haunt us

Hoe dang, I can't until somebody interviews Nellie Sherber so she will tell us just how she's feeling...

without including any of the cows or pigs that might have gotten a kick in the shins before being sent into 'hot beds' or 'work sheds'...

The waitress held up the third penny. "And this one," she said, "tells me that your father was a bachelor," she said.

A sure sign of spring in the East... the green areas of the interstate air conditioner salesman's feet on your doorstep.

"Ethically," the Frustrator doesn't want to hurt a living thing... "The Frustrator is like the Vegetarian, only different. They eat fruit, nuts, seeds and grains..."

I didn't take any stroke of genius to put a sweater on Dan... It was cold and most of us had been wanting them for weeks to keep warm...

"New the question arises: what will Father be wearing when it grows warmer? No viewer is going to buy his slipover this summer when the temperature hits the 90's..."

"I hear my blogness screaming for mercy each time I make a weathervane turn... 'Ethically,' the Frustrator doesn't want to hurt a living thing..."

It's not a sweater that I mean... I was just kidding about the slipover... The man smiled in agreement...

The talents of some waitresses really are amazing... You'd be surprised how much they can tell about customers just by little things they observe...

It's not a sweater that I mean... I was just kidding about the slipover... The man smiled in agreement...

proved the center of the world, since the sky was seen to "come down" at a point equidistant from all points... "I can't tell my fortune from the stars these three pennies. Would you like me to do it?"

"Such a pity," I remember my father said, as we drove on to our journey's end... "It was the best friend I had in the world..."

An author's random thoughts...

by Warren R. Fisher Sr. April 22, 1967 This was Charles Dillingham's first book, I remember, who invented 'colorblind'...

April 14, 1930, Mr. Garrett stated that at the time of Booth's death, he himself was a boy seven years of age... "In his interview of seven years ago, Mr. Garrett said that he had seen Booth and his companions arrive at his father's home about ten days after the fatal shooting of President Lincoln..."

In this corner... by Jim Butler Wanke

There was an article in the New York Times the other day about how hard the farmers are it. Of course you know the fine weather you live on the farm in the 1950s...

"I refer to my father, who as a boy of seven saw Booth die on the porch of his father's home near Fort Royal, Virginia... "Mr. Garrett also said 'My father, H.C. Garrett, was a very hospitable man and my boy was ever turned from his door..."

The Carlisle Mercury

Established 1920 Phone 6460 285-2444 Published every Thursday at 734 Locust Street, Carlisle, Kentucky... MEMBERSHIP LIST: Warren R. Fisher, Editor; Jim W. Wankle, Editor; Mike Shoney, Editor...

Carlisle Church of Christ Frank W. Chew, Minister Phone 298-4777 What Is First?? If we meet and you forget me, you have lost nothing... Service your TV or Radios on Contract Wiring—Call DUNLANS ELECTRONIC SHOP

NATIONAL NEWSPAPER ASSOCIATION MEMBERSHIP LIST: Nathan K. Wankle, Editor; Mike Shoney, Editor; Warren R. Fisher, Editor...

BEST COPY AVAILABLE