Four fires, one false alarm in county

Five fire calls were footed from the county, Fire Chief Woody Wilson reported to the Mercury during the past week.

At 10:05 a.m. on Friday, April 16, a fire was called to the Carmine Country Club by a telephone call from the kitchen. Minor smoke damage was caused by a defective toaster on the deep fryer, which allowed the fryer to heat up. Two grass fires were fought, one on Monday, April 12, and the other on the 14th. The first was along the road, two miles east on Concord Road at the residence of Jake Bartow, Jr. No damage was reported and the cause was unknown. The second fire call was at 3:15 p.m.

on the Everett Wilson farm on Oxford Road. Rager Hamilton had apparently been having break on his farm and it spread out of control onto the Wilson property.

Sunday night, April 18, a call was taken about 7 p.m. concerning the Avery Thorsburn property on Upper Lake Road. There was a house burned and was under control. The smoke had apparently started the neighbors.

Monday night, April 19, at about 8:40 p.m., a call was received from the Short Stone Creek Road about nine miles out. Firemen were late to prevent an automobile fire from becoming a total loss. The auto was a Grand Prix, driven by Victor Sloop. Cause of the fire was unknown, but Mr. Sloop told firemen she thought it started in wires under the instrument panel.
