Reigning Queen

Harriett Leidy, Ft. Mitchell senior, has been named Miss Morehead State University of 1982. The pageant involved two nights of competition for 19 NSU candidates. Leidy is a speech and theater major and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Leidy of Ft. Mitchell. — Photo submitted.

Nicholas county goes to Special Olympics

The Hazard area regional Special Olympics Track and Field Meet was held Saturday, April 24, at Bourbon County High School. Children and adults from Anderson, Bourbon, Clark, Fayette, Franklin, Harrison, Nicholas and Scott Counties competed in their respective age groups.

The competitive events were preceded by a parade of athletes and opening ceremonies. Congressman Larry Rothenberg was in attendance and presented the athletes with their respective age groups. A variety of carnival type activities were provided for the enjoyment of the participants. Some of these activities included a cheerleading clinic, raclette wheel, bubble gum contest, face painting, spinner, tire and forearm twisting. A spectacular display of balloons was released at the beginning of the day. Four adults who attended the Adult Training Center in Paris completed in
