Kay's Kitchen By Kay Fisher With so many fresh vegetables available, now is the time to try them different ways, so you may want to mix in combination. You can use and match them in a variety of ways. Even old favorites can have a flair by using different seasonings. Now is a good time to serve complete vegetable meals, just don't forget the cornbread cooked on top of the stove as a hot griddle, if you do not to heat the oven, or baked in an iron skillet with bacon grease for a crisp brown crust.

SPANISH EGGPLANT 1 medium eggplant, peeled and cut into 1/2 inch slices 1/4 cup chopped onion 1/4 cup chopped green pepper 1/4 cup bacon drippings 1/2 teaspoon salt 1/2 teaspoon sugar 1/2 cup dry bread crumbs 1/2 cup grated Parmesan cheese Combine eggplant, onion, green pepper, and bacon drippings.
