

Two at MSU get scholar-athlete awards

(Ohio Valley Conference Commissioner James Ehlert) and assistant director of the Ohio Valley Conference, James Ehlert, announced that two students from Maysville State University have been selected as recipients of the OVC's most prestigious award given to a student athlete by the OVC's member schools.

The award, known as the "Scholar-Athlete Award," is given to a student athlete who has demonstrated exceptional ability in his or her sport and has also achieved a high level of academic excellence.

The two recipients are Donna Stephens, a senior in the College of Business Administration, and Cec Hopkins, a senior in the College of Education.

Stephens, a member of the varsity basketball team, has earned a 3.8 grade point average and is a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society. Hopkins, a member of the varsity tennis team, has earned a 3.5 grade point average and is a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society.

The award ceremony will be held at the annual OVC meeting in Columbus, Ohio, in May.
