Car sidwiped last week
A car driven by Jewel Farish, Route 4, Paris, was sidwiped Wednesday evening on the Carpenter Pike in Paris, Kentucky.
The report says that Dale "did not stop" and that Farish "had to run to maintain automobile insurance in relation to the accident."
Farish's car received damage to the front fender and door. No details were listed in the report about damage to Dale's vehicle. There were no injuries reported.

Fire hits home on Oriole St.
A fire of undetermined origin caused extensive damage to a local home on Oriole Street Tuesday morning.
County Fire Chief Harry Wilson said the blaze broke out at 9 a.m. at the home of the DeBoer's. He said that both the "house and contents are not insured."
Wilson said fire officials are not sure of the cause of the blaze, but he said it began in a bedroom.
There were no injuries attributed to the fire.
County firefighters responded to another local blaze last Friday evening, when a family furnace overheat ignited a fire in the home of Henry Tetter on the Upper Jackwells Road.
Wilson said there was no damage reported from that fire which broke out at 6:30 p.m.
