

Don't panic, Babson says...

There are no easy solutions, however, that does not mean that no progress can be made. The Reagan tax package, which is being unveiled today, is also the current view of the administration on tax matters and is expected to be passed by the end of this year. It will have more to do with the White House and Congress in 1982 than it will with the economy in 1981.

There are two main areas of concern: the rate of inflation and the rate of interest. The rate of inflation is expected to be 10 percent in 1981, and the rate of interest is expected to be 15 percent. These rates are expected to be maintained through 1982.

Saltwater Kentucky Business Scene

When the Kentucky General Assembly convened last week, the business community was optimistic about the prospects for 1982. The Governor's budget address, which was broadcast live on Kentucky Education Television, was well received. The Governor's plan for 1982 was seen as a positive step towards economic recovery.

The Governor's plan for 1982 was seen as a positive step towards economic recovery. The plan included a 10 percent increase in the state income tax rate, which was expected to generate additional revenue for the state. The Governor also announced a 15 percent increase in the state sales tax rate, which was expected to generate an additional $1 billion in revenue.
