Reach for warmer clothing

The mercury is hovering near zero. The thermometer is set at 58 degrees. If you're wearing your old jacket and begging for more, here's what the cold will do to you — a spectacular point out that material fibers such as cotton wool or wool — especially wool — do a good job of absorbing moisture from the skin and allowing evaporation to evaporate from the skin.

Many people are turning to long underwear to ward off the winter blues. Some people are wearing heavy coats and heavy hats. Some people are wearing heavy coats and heavy hats. Some people are wearing heavy coats and heavy hats.
