State Police to initiate 6-point plan

Last year, on the 4th of July weekend, 18 people lost their lives on Kentucky highways. During that same period another 360 persons were injured. Captain Kenneth Smith, Kentucky State Police Post Commander, said that the 6-point plan will be initiated on the 4th of July. The plan is a correction of the 6-point area over the holiday weekend to combat the senseless slaughter on our highways.
