

Library Notes

The Nicholas County Library is open on Mondays from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m., and Tuesdays, Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Librarian Jerri Anderson announces the following new books have been received:

Path Swamper by Bonnie Prudden. Seasoned fitness expert, Prudden shows how pain caused by headache, backache, arthritis and other conditions can be eliminated in minutes without drugs. Her method identifies the trigger points of aches and cramps and williams pressure from fingers, knuckles and elbows.

One Of Us by Nikki Andrus. Nora is the one girl at school, and no one seems to want to be her friend. It begins to look like Nora will be alone forever, until an unsuspecting friend shows her that getting accepted takes more than waiting for someone to say hello.

Flambers Divided by E.M. Peyton. Christmas new lives at Flambers with her husband Dick, the former groom. Just as the future seems settled, her fiancé Mark is injured and returns to Flambers for convalescence. Christmas becomes torn between the love for her husband and her growing feelings for the contractor of her youth in this eagerly awaited sequel to the award-winning Flambers trilogy.

Spent Child by Allison Knapp. Going beyond the classic fashion do's and don'ts every woman under 40 already knows, two fashion experts offer hundreds of tips that apply not only to the solutions to getting clothes together as they work for the small woman, not against her.

Wham! Book of Video Games by Craig Kaberly. Designed for both the novice and the veteran, this guide gives complete and witty coverage of the video game phenomenon. Kaberly gives all the information you need outside the most diabolical cut-up and video game.

McKlean's Obsessive John Garver. The author has written a novel that is at once a gripping ghost story, a profound philosophical meditation, a celebration of the power of love and the human spirit.

Sherrill's depicts and the short also investigated two other accidents in the last few days, one of which occurred seven miles east of Carlisle on Thursday, July 8.

Two pickup trucks rolled in that the rear quarter panel on one truck driven by Elva McFarland, 30, of Route 1.

Baners of Dawn by Patricia Matthews. The author of Thies once introduces Charlotte King, one of the most beautiful and beautiful beauties heretofore since Scarlett O'Hara. The Civil War has not been her only hero. But Charlotte strikes out on her own to save her family and the must struggle between the two passionate and demanding men who are vying for her affection.

The Man From St. Petersburg by Ken Fiddell. The author of The Key to Rebecca sets his sights on World War I in a new thriller that unfolds in the dramatic months before the war when a noble Russian aristocrat visits an English lord to seal a pact that will make England and Russia allies.

The Over 30, His-Week, All-Natural Health and Beauty Plan by Elizabeth Martin presents an easy, effective, six-week program that emphasizes a nutritional diet, plus, workouts, skin care tips, posture exercises and relaxation techniques to help a woman achieve and maintain physical fitness.

Act of War by Leonard Sanders. During World War II, former U.S. coast captain Walter Von Deck and Rachel, a German Jewish woman, are forced to flee to New York to save her imprisoned family, carry out a plan to destroy the "Normans" docked in New York.

Doctor Love by Gail Broome. Forty-two year old M.J. Barney Kincaid, at the top of his profession and recently released from an empty marriage, finds exotic fulfillment with two disparate women until the shock of a nature changes him into an erotic odyssey.

Eden Burning by Brian Platts. When the island of St. Felix is swept by violence, the destiny of the wealthiest family, the owners of the estate, Elchenor, hangs in the balance.

Fire Of Oak by William DeAndrea. During the 1930s in the atmosphere of budding fascism, a gentleman by the name of McGarby befriends a member of the Italian Fascist movement, a discovery of a major league scandal.

The House of Gray by Patricia Hill. Chronicle the business ventures, the passions, scandals and tragedies of two families, the English Crays and the Italian Bondanos, engaged in the elegant but cutthroat Italian-American international art dealing.

The Precious Daughter by Jeffrey Archer. Driven by ambition, Phyllis Dinkelspiel, daughter of a hobo and a doctor, relinquishes her inheritance to marry the man she loves.

Local woman is injured; three accidents are reported

A 21 year old Nicholas County woman, Carol Stanger of Route 2, was injured when the motorcycle she was riding collided with a car Saturday evening, July 10, on Morning Glory Road, the Nicholas County Sheriff's office reports.

A spokesperson for the Harrison Memorial Hospital said Mr. Stanger was released in satisfactory condition Tuesday.

Sherrill's reports said the driver of the car was Sarah A. Hutton, 17, of E. Bridge Street, Cynthiana. A passenger in the Hutton vehicle was identified as Kenneth Leach.

Sherrill's reports said the accident occurred about 10 miles north of Carlisle on Morning Glory Road at about 9:15 p.m. Saturday night when the motorcycle driven by Stanger came around a curve and hit the car on the side.

Sherrill's deputies and the sheriff also investigated two other accidents in the last few days, one of which occurred seven miles east of Carlisle on Thursday, July 8.

Two pickup trucks rolled in that the rear quarter panel on one truck driven by Elva McFarland, 30, of Route 1.

Another accident was also reported in the county by Tracy Vio of Route 1, Morefield, and David Byrd, 26, of 212 Walnut, Carlisle. According to sheriff's reports, Byrd pulled out in front of Vio and forced Vio into the ditch.
