New grand jury impaneled

The new grand jury, which has not yet met officially to consider any business, is composed of the following members, selected from those jurors who were asked to appear last Wednesday: Judge John P. Lair, Nicholas Circuit Clerk Sally Watkins and their duties were explained to them. Nicholas Circuit Clerk Sally Watkins also asked the Mercury to clarify a story printed last week in which jurors were advised that they could pick up their checks. "These checks are for the old jurors who served from Dec. 30, 1981 through April 27, 1982," Mrs. Watkins said.

Senior Citizens gathered

Forty-three senior citizens gathered at the center in Carlisle, located at Main and Locust, Saturday for a trip to the World's Fair in Knoxville. The bus apparently was running on slow time, as it had not yet showed up with this photo was taken. It did arrive, however, and transported the group to Knoxville, from which they returned late Tuesday. — Mercury photo.
