Sign up for government loans...maybe

A goodly number of Nicholas farmers who had suffered crop losses last spring showed up Friday to fill out forms at the library for the FmHA. They were assisted by FmHA staffers who said the applications would be forwarded to Washington where a decision would be made whether to grant them low interest loans to cover their losses. — Mercury photo.

Airman Gaunce

Roy Gaunce III completes basic

Airman Roy E. Gaunce III, son of Roy E. Gaunce Jr. of 353 West Main Street, Carlisle, and Mary J. Robinson of Berea, has been assigned to Keesler Air Force Base, Miss., after completing Air Force basic training.

Brown proclaims teacher week

Governor John Y. Brown, in cooperation with the Kentucky School Boards Association, has signed a proclamation declaring May 17-21 as Teacher and School Administrator Appreciation Week. The proclamation recognizes the need to attract and retain dedicated teachers and administrators in Kentucky's public schools.

Arnold talk: to Methodist men

Judge Jack Arnold of Cynthiana was a guest speaker for the Carlisle Methodist men at their monthly meeting in the annex of the church May 1.

Judge Arnold delivered a very interesting and educational talk, it was reported, on the different phases of court in the state and the activities of local courts in Nicholas, Harrison, Pendleton and Robertson Counties.

Potluck dinner was enjoyed by the 18 men present.

All continents once were one "supercontinent" that began pulling apart some 200 million years ago, according to the National Geographic Society.
