Civil Services in England, as aide to Winston Churchill. According to Michelle, he shared with the audience what an invaluable learning experience that had been, and the admiration he holds for one of the world's most revered leaders.

Following the lecture, the next stop on the day's itinerary, was one of relaxation and chatting at Pops Pub in the Hyatt Regency. This afforded the student representatives a chance to talk informally with the prime minister.

As Michelle explained, "Being the youngest of 11, I asked him about Prince Charles and Princess Diana, and were they as popular in England as in America?" His reply was affirmative, quite so. And Dr. Wilson thought that Princess Diana was very good for Prince Charles. Also that she was a very gracious young lady. He told Michelle about attending the royal wedding, and sitting next to Prince Margaret Thatcher and her husband.

Michelle said she was very impressed with the politeness of the Scotland Yard security men, and enjoyed talking to them immensely. They told her that visiting Lexington was the highlight of their tour, mainly because of the personal treatment they received.

According to Michelle, the Student Activity Board is the only student organization which offers a political outlet through lectures and political affairs, as well as sponsoring visual and performing arts programs, and exhibits, concerts, theater stage, cinema, homecoming activities, Little Kentucky Derby, and special activities.

There are 20 students on the board which include nine executive positions. Anita Stevenson, granddaughter of Mrs. Joe Stevenson, former resident of Carlisle, is director of Public Relations. Members of the board are selected after filling out applications and being interviewed by existing board executive members, other campus leaders and dormitory presidents. Members must re-apply each year to be selected for the next year. When Michelle applied as a freshman, there were 45 applicants to fill the 20 positions. Michelle is a Junior Vocational Home Economics Education major.
