It's the 'scam' season again

Two cases have now been reported of the attempted duping of elderly residents by workmen claiming to be representatives of legitimate agencies...

Security administration and wanting cash to settle an overpayment. In that case, however, the woman was smart enough not to let him in. A check with social security officials revealed that their representatives do not ask for cash payments in the field.

The government safety myth

Whether it's nuclear fallout, harmful nuclear waste or the accuracy of labels on bottles of pills, we need to be careful about accepting the government's idea of what's safe and what isn't.

From exposure to the fallout or more than a hundred above-ground nuclear tests between 1962 and 1963.

As a result, 1197 persons in Utah have ming the federal government for negligence, because they have contracted leukemia, cancers, skin and muscle disorders, in higher than normal numbers

The term globejockey was invented by Texas Congressman Marry Weaver to mean "talk or writing, especially of officialdom, that is pompous, wordy, involved and full of long limited words." Who will take Alexander Hag's place as king of Globejockey?

It's not your fault that you're a failure. It's not your fault that you're a failure. It's not your fault that you're a failure. It's not your fault that you're a failure.

The Official Secret Act and the Freedom of Information Act of 1958 take the cake. It allows a judge to place an indefinite ban on reporting a fact. A fact that would be held in early summer was not reported for about a month after it would become the judge felt it could produce a similar result in the summer.
