Liquor election

County Clerk Rose Scott told the Mercury that the left side of Old Paris Road went west toward U.S. 60. Then, as you drive south toward the traffic lights at the intersection of the road is west. And the south side of U.S. 60 is the location County line is also the boundary line.

The north boundary of city building also follows the newly set precincts then extends along the south side of Main Street, through downtown Carlisle, east as far as where Gordon Street, House Scott said.

The vote in the Mayors Office precinct went according to predictions and stayed dry, but the Fayette House precinct surprised many. It stayed dry.

Hollenbach files

Todd Hollenbach has formally filed for the Democratic nomination for Lieutenant Governor. Hollenbach filed his papers with the Secretary of State's office and then issued a statement.

Hollenbach announced his candidacy last September, but did not begin active campaigning until after the Congressional campaign in November.

Hollenbach stressed his proven leadership in government and business as important in meeting the challenge of today's hard economic times. The 43-year-old former Jefferson County Judge said, "The creation of new jobs
