Carlisle Woman's Club awarded first place honor certificate

The GFWC Carlisle Community Woman's Club was awarded a 100 percent Honor Certificate at the Kentucky Federation of Women's Clubs' convention in Louisville.

Each year a number of KFWC program requirements are established in the areas of conservation, fine arts, international affairs, education, public affairs, home life and community improvement. A member club that participates in all these areas is eligible for the award.

The Carlisle club also gained recognition for co-sponsoring a resolution to be presented to the next session of the Kentucky General Assembly, requesting an increase in the amount of money raised by a civic organization that can be taxed by the state. Present legislation allows the state to tax an amount over $500; the resolution called for raising that amount or eliminating the tax if the money is to be used for a community project.

Attending the convention from the Carlisle club were Mrs. Conn Abnee, Mrs. Mark Hughes, Mrs. Gayle Kelley, Mrs. Dick Letton, Mrs. Tim Scott and Mrs. Fred Whaley. Mrs. Kelley and Mrs. Scott are the club's newly elected vice-president and secretary. The delegates attended three days of meetings, a new officers' workshop, awards banquets and a president's breakfast.

Mrs. Presley Kendall sent a first-place, district-winning crocheted blanket to place in state creative arts competition.

Historical Society Open House luncheon tickets will be available to non-members

Historical Society members are reminded that after April 30, Open House luncheon tickets will be made available to non-members.

The luncheon is scheduled from noon to 1 p.m. Sunday, June 5, at the renovated L&N Depot, before the Open House tour begins at 1:30 p.m.

Reservations are limited because of the seating capacity at the Depot. Cost is $9 for members and $10 for non-members for the luncheon and Open House tour.

Contact Joan W. Conley, director, for more information or for tickets.

Kay's Kitchen

By Kay Fisher

For those of you asking for something different to serve for Derby parties, here are some recipes suitable for cocktails or brunch. However, don't forsake all the traditional foods that really make Derby parties a Kentucky tradition. Try all the new things you like, but don't give up the country ham, thinly sliced, with hot biscuits, and the cheese grits, when you give a Derby breakfast, or brunch.

From "The Cabbage Patch" Famous Kentucky Recipes, I found this Turkey Hash Pendennis Style. You might want to try it.

TURKEY HASH PENDENNIS STYLE

Two small onions chopped fine and sauteed in butter; add 3 tablespoons flour and 1 quart chicken stock, 4 cups diced turkey and 2 cups diced cooked potatoes. Season and cook 20 minutes.

Serve small, thin hot corn cakes and butter with the hash.

Here is a suggested brunch casserole from the Junior League of San Francisco Cookbook.

BARLEY AND PINE NUT CASSEROLE

1 cup pearl barley
¼ to ½ cup pine nuts (or almonds)
2 tablespoons butter
1 medium onion, chopped
¼ cup minced parsley
¼ cup minced chives (or green onions)
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon freshly ground pepper
3 cups chicken or beef stock, heated to boiling
Chopped parsley for garnish

Preheat oven to 375 degrees. Rinse and drain barley. Toast pine nuts in 1 tablespoon of the butter in a skillet. Remove nuts with a slotted spoon and set aside. Add remaining 2 tablespoons of butter to the skillet, and add onion and barley, stirring until barley is toasted. Stir in nuts, parsley, chives, salt and pepper. Spoon into a 1½-quart casserole. Pour hot stock over casserole and mix well. Bake, uncovered, for 1 hour and 15 minutes. Garnish with chopped parsley.

For a crowd, do not double recipe. Simply make two casseroles.

EGG CASSEROLE
"Great for a Brunch"

¼ cup butter
¼ cup flour
1 teaspoon salt
1 cup cream
1 cup milk
¼ teaspoon thyme
¼ teaspoon basil
¼ teaspoon marjoram
¼ teaspoon chervil
1 lb. sharp cheddar cheese, grated
1½ dozen hard-boiled eggs, sliced
1 pound bacon, sauteed and crumbled
¼ cup parsley, finely chopped
Buttered bread crumbs

Melt butter and make cream sauce using flour, salt, cream and milk. Add herbs. Stir cheese in cream sauce until melted. Place a layer of sliced eggs in 3-quart casserole; sprinkle bacon over eggs, and garnish with parsley. Add layer of cheese sauce over all and repeat two more layers. Top with buttered bread crumbs. Bake uncovered at 350 degrees for 30 minutes. Serves 10 to 12.

Miss Kay Conley, a junior journalism student at the University of Kentucky, has been initiated into Omicron Delta Kappa Honorary at UK.

She was among 24 juniors and seniors selected from approximately 300 students nominated for the honor. A student must excel in each of five areas: scholarship, athletics, social service, religious activities, campus government, and journalism, speech, mass media, creative and performing arts.

Kay is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jock Conley of Carlisle, and is active in many campus activities. She works part-time in the Public Information Office of the Agricultural Extension Branch of the College of Agriculture at UK.

Saltwell Church is scene of Herrington-Tuttle wedding

Laura E. Herrington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil C. Ritchie Sr., Route 4, Carlisle, and Bryon Scott Tuttle, son of Georgia Tuttle, Waterloo, NY, and Gerald Tuttle, Millport, NY, were married Saturday, April 16, 11:30 p.m. at the Saltwell Methodist Church with the Rev. Roy C. Hunt officiating at the double ring ceremony.

A program of traditional selections was given by Mrs. Fred Hollar.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length off-white gown layered with lace and accented by a string of pearls. The shoulder-length veil of illusion cascaded from a crown of pearls. She carried a bouquet of assorted spring flowers and greenery tied with yellow, blue and pink ribbons.

Mrs. Patricia Mitchell, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a light green floor-length gown, with baby's breath accentuating her hair. Her bouquet was spring flowers.

The junior bridesmaids, Terra and Kristina Herrington, daughters of the bride, were pink dresses and white bonnets. Each wore a yellow carnation corsage and Terra carried three daisies accented by a red carnation.

Douglas Tuttle of Waterloo, NY, brother of the groom, was best man.

Richie Hampton, nephew of the bride, served as usher and also served at the guest register.

The reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ritchie with Mrs. Sue Ritchie assisting.

Out of state guests included Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Tuttle, Horseheads, NY, and April Genanst, Waterloo, NY.

Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Clay Ritchie Jr. and family, Eddie Nader, Lida and Shawna Moore, Paul R. Ritchie, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Mers, Mary Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Daniel, Edna Schmidt, Jennifer Workman, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Mitchell, Mary Anna Roberts, Shirley and Opal Ritchie, Wayne Baker, Richie, Lisa and Cathy Hampton.

Mr. and Mrs. Tuttle are students at Mayesville Area Vocational School and will reside at Myers Station.

Cord home is on June 5 tour

(Editor' note: This is the second in a series of features on homes to be toured Sunday, June 5, sponsored by the Nicholas County Historical Society. Tickets are $4 and $5 and may be purchased at the restored Carlisle Depot the day of the tour.)

by Rob Lane

It cost two trips to the hospital to refurbish the 105 North Street home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Cord.

How did it happen? One trip was when Cord embedded the fragment of a nail in his arm. The other was when Mrs. Cord caught her finger in a sweeper. In spite of hard work and freak accidents, Cord still says, "We had a lot of fun."

"I wouldn't have gotten an interior decorator if I could have afforded to," says Mrs. Cord. Visitors June 5 will see there was little need for one. They will enter the two story painted brick house and see a formal, yet cool and comfortable combination of blue plush carpeting and white-on-white wallpaper. The stairway boasts a solid cherry handrail, while the parlor and dining room continue the formal air.

Yet, the Cords and daughter Debbie are far from formal folks, and their den reflects their other tastes. The blue is now combined with earth tones and large cream colored pillows are readily available for lounging.

Throughout the house are antiques. Some are family heirlooms, but many were bargains refinished by the Cords.

The completely remodeled kitchen is brightly decorated in burnt orange, brown and white. "They thought I was crazy when I bought the orange countertop," says Mrs. Cord.

Favorite spot

The family's favorite summer spot is the screened back porch with wicker and wrought iron furniture. An overhead ceiling fan helps keep the whole house cool, not just the porch, says Debbie.

Debbie, a Lexington Technical Institute student, aided her mother in choosing wallpaper and carpeting for the house. She says it was uncanny how they would make the same choices, unaware of the other's preference.

Both agree their favorite room is the upstairs guest room. The brass bed, double windows, and subtle wallpaper make it a bright and cheerful room, yet, "it's peaceful," says Debbie.

Of course, having a carpenter for a father and husband certainly helped things along. However, "She (Mrs. Cord) worked in one room, and I in the other," jokes Cord.

Mrs. Cord's father, Mr. Webb Buntin, also helped out often. Mrs. Cord did the painting herself, all 25 gallons of it, she moans.

The Cords have yet to find out a great deal about their home's history. Prior to 1978 when they purchased it, Mrs. Lil Martin, a Kentucky Utilities employee, lived there.

What next? "We're full of ideas," says Mrs. Cord. She already has plans for a rock garden and waterfall for the backyard. Plans are in the making for redecorating the master bedroom.

What then? "She sits around and plans how she would do other houses," says Debbie.

Mrs. Cord just may have a new job after June 5.

Homemakers

Parks

The Parks Homemakers met April 11 at 7 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Stanley Alexander. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. George R. Carter.

Devotional was given by Mrs. Edith Bryant, reading scripture from Proverbs and closing with prayer.

Roll call was answered by 10 members and Mrs. Margie Wilson naming a tree. Minutes were read and approved. A very informative lesson was given by Mrs. Margie Wilson on less sugar in our diets and use of sugar substitutes, also on food labels and what they tell us about sugar.

Mrs. George R. Carter led us in a recreation time with games.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Stanley Alexander.

East Union

The East Union Homemakers met at the Extension Office Thursday night.

The meeting was called to order by Julia Boyd, giving the devotion taken from Proverbs. Roll call was answered by seven members naming a tree. Sue Bell read the minutes of our last meeting. The reports were taken.

The lesson on sugar in your diet was given by Sue Bell.

Refreshments were prepared by Sue Bell and Elsie Ruth Burden using recipes with "no added sugar."

Ashland Oil CEO to address May MSU graduates

Spring commencement highlights the May calendar of events at Morehead State University.

John R. Hall, chairman and chief executive officer of Ashland Oil, Inc., will address more than 1,000 degree candidates at spring commencement ceremonies on Saturday, May 14, at 10 a.m. in the Academic-Athletic Center.

Art shows scheduled during the month include a senior art student exhibit through May 13 in the Claypool-Young Art Gallery.

Head Start has parents meeting

The Nicholas County Head Start Parents meeting was held on April 14 at the Community Center at 7:30 p.m. There were 18 present and four children. The meeting was called to order by acting chairperson Janet Kenney. The devotion entitled "I Am Kentucky" was read by Sally Jones. The minutes were read and approved. Treasurer's report was given by Steve McCarty with a balance of $53.00.

Mrs. Sally Jones, Child/Family Service Assistant, brought up the discussion of buying Mrs. Walter Shepherd a retirement gift, to be presented to her at our Annual Parent Night on May 12, from the Head Start children. Mrs. Shepherd has served the Head Start program since 1966. A committee made up of Ann Brierly and Janet Morris was appointed to purchase the retirement gift.

The group discussed a bake sale set for April 23 at the Carlisle Drug Store, from 9 a.m. till noon. This money will be used to help with expenses for the Parent Night program.

Two jam cakes were donated by Mrs. Jewel Bussell, to be given away by selling chances or donations on May 6.

Mrs. Betty Lynn Conrad, Director of Pupil Personnel at the Nicholas County Board of Education, was our guest speaker. Mrs. Conrad discussed the necessary requirements for a child to be enrolled in first grade in a public school system. Immunizations, physicals, accumulated records, handicap services, lunch programs, attendance and home bound programs were discussed. A student handbook was given to each parent. This handbook was prepared for the parents and students, containing rules and regulations as to what is expected by us as parents and the students.

Mrs. Ann Brierly was recognized as the parent of the month of March with 11 hours worked. Total hours for month of March from both classrooms was 159½ hours.
