Kay's Kitchen

By Kay Fisher

Last week I gave you quick sweet breads for yourself or for gift-giving. This week continuing with cookies to keep or give. These will all freeze well.

LEMONADE NUT BARS

¾ cup butter or margarine
¾ cup sugar
1½ cups sifted all-purpose flour
2 eggs
1 6-oz. can frozen lemonade concentrate, thawed
2 tablespoons sifted flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
⅛ teaspoon salt
1½ cups flaked coconut
1 cup chopped nuts
Powdered sugar

Beat butter until fluffy; beat in sugar. Stir in flour to make stiff dough. Press into 15½x10½-inch jelly roll pan. Bake in 350 degree oven for about 15 minutes, or until golden brown. Set aside to cool while making topping. Beat eggs until lemon colored. Beat in lemonade. Mix together flour, baking powder and salt. Stir into egg mixture. Blend in coconut and nuts. Spread evenly over baked crust. Return to oven and bake about 25 minutes. Cool, then cut into 60 bars. Sprinkle with powdered sugar. Freeze if desired.

SUGARED ALMOND STICKS

½ cup blanched almonds
½ cup sugar, divided
1 cup sifted all-purpose flour
¼ teaspoon salt
½ cup butter or margarine
1 egg, separating yolk and white
¼ teaspoon almond extract

Grind almonds in blender, or chop very finely. Mix 2 tablespoons of the almonds with 2 tablespoons of the sugar; set aside. Combine the remaining almonds and sugar, flour and salt, mixing well. Cut in butter until mixture resembles coarse crumbs. Stir in egg yolk and almond extract; work with hands to make smooth dough. Divide dough into 6 portions on lightly floured surface. Roll each portion into rope 12 inches long (flour hands if necessary). Brush tops generously with egg white; sprinkle on reserved almond-sugar mixture. Cut each strip into 2-inch sticks. Place on ungreased baking sheet and bake in 350 degree preheated oven for about 15 minutes, or until light brown. Cool 5 minutes, then remove to rack to cool. Makes 3 dozen cookies. May be frozen.

Note: Don't let cookies get too brown, watch closely.

MISSISSIPPI MUD COOKIES

4 eggs
1 cup butter or margarine, softened
2 cups sugar
1 teaspoon vanilla
1½ cups unsifted flour
¼ cup unsweetened cocoa
Dash of salt
1 cup chopped pecans
1 jar (7-oz.) marshmallow creme
FROSTING:
¼ cup butter or margarine
⅓ cup unsweetened cocoa
⅓ cup milk
1 teaspoon vanilla
2½ cups confectioners sugar

Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Grease a 12x8 inch baking pan; set aside.

In a large mixer bowl with electric mixer at medium speed, beat eggs, butter, sugar and vanilla until light and fluffy, scraping sides of bowl occasionally. Add flour, cocoa and salt; beat just until well blended. Fold in pecans. Spread batter evenly in pan. Bake 45-45 minutes. Immediately place dollops of marshmallow creme on cake and spread until smooth. Let cool on wire rack for at least 1 hour before frosting.

FROSTING:

In a medium saucepan melt butter; stir in cocoa and cook 1 minute. Remove from heat and add remaining frosting ingredients; stir until smooth. Spread on top of marshmallow creme. When frosting has cooled, cut into 1-inch squares. Wrap well to freeze. Will freeze up to 3 months.

These cookies are super sweet-gooey, rich and good.

***

Here is a quick and easy, no-cook cookies. These keep well in refrigerator.

BOURBON CRUMB BALLS

2 cups ground chocolate wafers (about an 8½-oz. package)
1 cup ground mixed nuts, or pecans
1 cup confectioners sugar
⅓ cup bourbon
¼ cup light corn syrup
Confectioners sugar

Stir together the wafers, nuts and 1 cup confectioners' sugar. Combine the bourbon with corn syrup. Add to the dry mixture, stirring well until the mixture adheres. Coat the palms of your hands with confectioners sugar. Roll the chocolate mixture into 1-inch balls. Roll each ball in more confectioners sugar. Chill. Store in airtight containers. Makes approximately 4 dozen. Allow balls to ripen. You may want to roll in more sugar just before serving.

Gospel concert will be Dec. 4 to benefit Haitian mission

Three Nicholas County men will be departing Jan. 13, 1984 on a 10-day mission of mercy to the island of Haiti.

They are leaving the comforts of life, and at their own expense traveling by car to Florida, where it is planned at that point to take a boat to their destination.

The men are Ray Wagoner, Kenny Cartmill and James D. Anderson, and all are members of the Blue Licks Christian Church. The purpose of the trip is to help construct a mission which will be under the auspices of the Christian Churchs. The cost of the trip per man has been cut to $450.

The men will be part of a 14-man team of Kentuckians, under the direction of Rev. Dale Parrish of Frankfort, who will make the trip.

A Benefit Gospel Concert, featuring The Ambassadors of Christ, The Singing Instruments, and Morris Gay, will be held Sunday, Dec. 4 from 2 to 5 p.m. at the Carlisle Christian Church. The proceeds from this concert will go towards the cost of the trip to the men.

The team will return to Kentucky on Jan. 23.

Miss Christie Mechelle Wood, daughter of Anthony Wood and Mrs. Phyllis H. Wood, Frankfort, and Paul Alexander Edwards, son of Wayne C. Edwards and Mrs. Helen B. Edwards, also of Frankfort, were married Saturday, Nov. 19, 1983 at Evergreen Baptist Church by the Rev. E. Campbell.

Jerry Chase, soloist, was accompanied by Mrs. Barbara Mitchell, organist.

Miss Ella Louise Wood, sister of the bride, was maid of honor.

Jeff White served as best man. Ushers were Tom and David Edwards, brothers of the groom, Steven Saylor and Larry Burton of Frankfort.

The guest book was attended by Mrs. Wynee Young Hecker.

Following the ceremony a reception in Jewell Hall was hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Dan Rich of Carlisle and assisted by Mrs. Danedya W. Hopper, Frankfort. Serving at the reception were Miss Lisa Rogers, Ms. Sherry Newman and Ms. Virginia Newman.

The bride is a graduate of Franklin County High School and is employed by attorney Billy Todd Cheshire, Frankfort.

The groom is a graduate of Frankfort High School and is attending the University of Kentucky. He is employed by McDonald's Restaurant in Lexington.

After a short trip to Gatlinburg, TN, the couple are residing in Lexington.

The bride is the great niece of Mrs. Rich and the great-granddaughter of Mrs. Sarah Polsgrove of Johnson-Mathers Nursing Home.

'At Home in Kentucky' features the Boone home in Elkton

Joy Bale and George Street Boone call their Elkton home "Halcyon" because it is a refuge full of contentment and peace. On the fourth program of KET's series, "At Home in Kentucky," the Boones take host Lora Ingerson and KET viewers on a tour through their historic home, Wednesday, Dec. 7, at 7:30 p.m.

Built in 1815 and added to in 1837, the house has been in Boone's family since his great-great-great-grandparents. The tour includes a quilt made by Boone's great-grandmother, which has been used since 1850; a large kitchen fireplace that was used to accommodate stagecoach riders; the family library and the Boone's mixture of English and Kentucky furniture. Also featured is a piece of material from Martha Washington's inaugural gown.

The Boones talk about their busy lives and many activities; Joy was a book reviewer for the Courier-Journal for 30 years; George is an Elkton attorney. Both have served on numerous civic boards and organizations.

"Home in Kentucky" is a KET production.

'Frontier Christmas'

Highlights of the weekend event include:

— Hot food, beverages and Paxton pie at Hi Paxton Inn, home of the Limestone Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution.

— Broom making at the Old Church Museum, built in 1848. Weaving and spinning will also be demonstrated. The church will also be the scene for a beautiful and impressive candlelight vesper service at 4 p.m. on Sunday, Dec. 4.

— The Kentucky Frontiersmen will demonstrate their skills. Tomahawk throwing will also be shown, both by experts in costumes of the frontier period.

— Great Kentucky food at Broderick's Tavern, which was first a tavern in 1790. The women of Haven's Chapel Church will also serve meals.

— Quilting at the Albert Sidney Johnston House and candle making at Mefford's Fort, a log home made from a flatboat.

A special treat will be members of the Maysville Players as strolling carollers in costume.

The Simon Kenton Shrine, located in one of the original 119 log cabins, will be open to provide information.

Other buildings open for the festive occasion include the log Post Office with its open fire, the old Presbyterian Church, the Bank of Mayslick in Washington (also a log cabin) and the log Baptist Church.

The 15 shops in Washington include 10 antique and gift shops, a yarn shop, a lamp and brass shop, a frame shop, a herb market and greenhouse and a train shop.

A parade featuring The Highland Aires and The Mason County Marching Band, the Maysville Players and Kentucky Frontiersmen is planned.

There will be no street vending due to exhibitions, carolling and horse-drawn vehicles.
