

Opinion

Cabbage Patch craze

If you didn't think Christmas brought out the best and worst in people, just look at the "Cabbage Patch Kids" craze. The honey little dolls with yam hair and girminsky addition, certainly have caused riots among Yuletide shoppers panicked over their limited supply and the prospect of disappointed kids.

Keep America green

At times who has ever traveled overseas and had to contend with wishes of malcontented citizens? Cabbage Industries, the maker of the popular Adam computer. Regardless of how many children are delighted or disappointed because of this fad, it should be Merry Christmas for Coleco stockholders.

Here Abouts with Emily A. Wolf

Favorite things revisited

Previous mention of Carlisle High School's annual Christmas season in last week's column. The Carlisle High School students carried off six titles in the Invitational Sports Tournament held in Louisville Saturday at Starnes High School. These competing were Robert Talbot, Tom Tapp, Joyce Williams, Leslee Hickox, Bob Harris, Brenda Bach, Kelly Cole, G.K. Curry, James Boyd, Annette Carpenter, Mary Ellen Stone, Caspe Brinkley, Leslee Moss, Paula Gebler and Jo Henning.

Agree or not

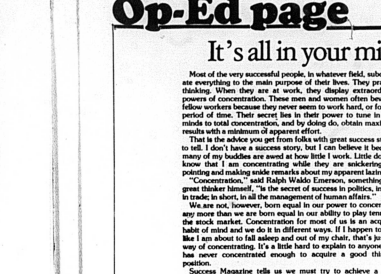

It's housecleaning time again

It happens every year and it's always welcome. While the chief news interest in this Capital City focused on the change in governors, there are about 80 state employees who will become political workers come Jan. 1.

Agree or not

It's housecleaning time again

It happens every year and it's always welcome. While the chief news interest in this Capital City focused on the change in governors, there are about 80 state employees who will become political workers come Jan. 1.

Agree or not

It's housecleaning time again

It happens every year and it's always welcome. While the chief news interest in this Capital City focused on the change in governors, there are about 80 state employees who will become political workers come Jan. 1.

Op-Ed page

It's all in your mind . . . Clutter makes you keep your thoughts straight, I think

Most of the very successful people, in whatever field, subordinate their needs and needs to their work. They practice common sense. When they are at work, they think about their work, not their personal life. They are not distracted by their personal life. They are not distracted by their personal life.

Agree or not

It's housecleaning time again

It happens every year and it's always welcome. While the chief news interest in this Capital City focused on the change in governors, there are about 80 state employees who will become political workers come Jan. 1.

Russ Metz

A list of expressions below you know you're off your feet when... It rains and raining below your waist gets wet. Somebody asks you to go to the City Hall and join a proceeding where you can see the pot at the end of the rainbow - and it's yours. You step on a doghouse and smell your pet a card that reads "No discussion for groups."

Pearl Harbor A Soldier's Experience

blackout, the matter became lights in the bay having been extinguished along with all other lights. However, across the bay at the Kentucky Hotel the lights were kept on. The lights were kept on for the purpose of the attack. The lights were kept on for the purpose of the attack.

Down Memory Lane

Two fires in Carlisle this week were at the home of C.C. Ballou on Locust Street and the home of Dr. Alexander Hamilton. The fire at the home of Dr. Alexander Hamilton was a serious one. The fire at the home of Dr. Alexander Hamilton was a serious one.

The Carlisle Mercury

Published every Thursday at 224 Locust Street, Carlisle, Nicholas County, Kentucky 40311. Postage paid at Carlisle, Ky. Publisher: Warren R. Fisher. Managing Editor: Walter E. Fisher. Editor: Walter E. Fisher. Advertising: Walter E. Fisher.

Letters to Santa . . .

Dear Santa, My name is Crystal Gayle. I'm 14 years old. I would like you to bring me a new dress. I would like you to bring me a new pair of shoes. I would like you to bring me a new pair of shoes.

Letters to Santa . . .

Dear Santa, My name is Eric Fulton and I am 11 years old. I would like you to bring me a new toy. I would like you to bring me a new toy. I would like you to bring me a new toy.

Share the magic of the season.

The FTD Holiday Glow Candle & Cane Bouquet. Send your greetings with care!

Registered trademark of Florists' Transworld Delivery Association.