Cars wreck after parade

A car traveling west on Main Street, driven by Don R. Robinson, Route 2, Carlisle, was struck by a car pulling out of Douglas Court about 8 p.m. December 7.

According to Police Chief Allen Earlywine, Jerry W. Hanesy, Route 1, Carlisle, was leaving Douglas Court at the conclusion of the Christmas Parade and struck the Robinson vehicle on the left side, causing considerable damage to both automobiles.

About the same time police were called to Walnut Street to investigate an accident involving cars driven by Theresy T. Markland Jr. and Billy R. Hill, both of Route 4, Carlisle. Extensive damage, but no injuries, was reported.

Ramona George, winner of 35 national and international haircutting and styling awards, announces that she is back to full time work starting Friday, Dec. 16.
