All too often we think of history in terms of dusty books and dry facts laid out in boring monotonous. Nineteenth century Kentucky possessed a color and vitality that deserves a better fate. All of that color and vitality are captured in the exhibition Kentucky Quilts 1800-1900 which will be on display at the Museum of History and Science in Louisville, 77 W. Main Street, from Feb. 5 through Mar. 31.

Quilts for the exhibit were collected during a statewide series of "Quilt Days" held by the Kentucky Quilt Project whose directors viewed some 1200 quilts before selecting the 40 to be exhibited. The final 40 are not only singular works of art, but "keyholes" to the history and culture of 19th

Ski at affordable prices at General Butler State Resort Park

Want to try your hand at skiing without paying peak-period prices? Ski Butler has a deal for you — several deals, in fact.

Ski Butler at General Butler State Resort Park in Carrollton began offering economical packages to the public on Jan. 1 covering Sundays through Thursdays for the entire skiing season.

For night skiers, the Night Flight Fare entitles a skier to a free lift-ticket and ski equipment rental when accompanied by three other paying skiers. The package is good from 5 p.m. to 10:30 p.m. Sundays through Thursdays. The Night Flight Fare is available through coupons distributed through some 370 area convenient Food Mart and through mail.

Even without package deals, Ski Butler will offer rates competitive with other ski areas, backcountry, lift-tickets will vary in price from $8 to $15, and equipment rental from $8 to $15, depending on the time of day.

Ski Butler will be open seven days a week this winter. Operating hours will be 8:30 a.m. to 10:30 p.m. on weekends, and 9 a.m. to 10:30 p.m. on weekdays. The facility features five lighted trails ranging from easy to moderately challenging. All slopes are served by an advanced snow-making system that can pile up three feet of snow during a cold night, backcountry.

In a current site-conditions report prepared by the state, the population of a little more than three million is governed by a huge bureaucracy of about 50,000 public servants, according to National Geographic.

But each of them would represent a horse in which the Mercury sees a welcome voice each week. Many of them would be horses into which it has one voice to become a hit.

ASCS clarifies burley price support, pool

The burley tobacco price support adjustment to November and the price support level to $1.75 (12 cents) have in some cases been presented in a misleading way. The ASCS Director Hart, Kentucky State ASCS Office, stated:

The three percent increase in the price support level from $1.75 to $1.81 announced in January 1983 was an increase of cents per pound. The new No Net Cost Program Law, requiring farmers to pay the expense of the program, went into effect July 1 and authorized the Secretary to reduce the support level if deemed necessary considering stocks on hand and our ability to complete with foreign mar-

City has collected most of insurance taxes

Over $700,000 in additional municipal insurance-premium taxes were collected through 1982 has been paid to Kentucky cities thanks to administrative action taken against delinquent companies by the state Insurance Department and by the voluntary payment of taxes owed by State Farm Insurance Companies, according to state Insurance Commissioner Daniel Brown.

An extra $100,000 was added to state government revenues from taxes levied by the Insurance Department against 179 insurance companies for failing to file accounting documents and pay premium taxes by the 1980 and 1981 deadlines.

According to Insurance Department figures, 138 cities and three counties received additional revenue because of state enforcement — ranging from $5 to $147,000 in Wayne County to $163,127 for Louisville.

Louisville received the largest amount of revenues from the municipal insurance-premium taxes, totaling $178,000 from the state's action and back taxes from the State Farm Insurance Company. State Farm Insurance underwrites roughly 30 percent of the cities benefiting from the state Insurance Department's enforcement action and receiving large revenues from the back insurance-premium taxes.
