Two Festival veterans

Dudley Vaughn, left, and former mayor Bill Power, have been a part of the Blackberry Festival for over 36 years. Power, as commander of the local V.F.W. Post started a Nicholas County Homecoming celebration in 1946. The American Legion began the Blackberry Festival shortly after, replacing the Homecoming event, but with Power still serving as master of ceremonies and announcer for parade and special events during the week long Festival. Vaughn who is a member of the American Legion and has held several offfice positions, has worked on every aspect of planning of the event for over 36 years.—Mercury photo.
