Jimmy Sadler Joins Fleming Tractor Firm

JIMMY SADLER

Jimmy Sadler, 22, of Carlisle, has accepted a position with Fleming Tractor according to Karl Zumbach, manager. He will be active in sales and in the parts department.

Well qualified, Jimmy worked at Ford Tractor in Lexington for five years and is engaged in farming. "I grew up in the tractor business. My father, Raymond Sadler, has worked in the Ford Tractor and Implement business for 33 years," he said.

He is married to the former Lona Hamilton and they are expecting their first child in May.

"We are fortunate to have this young man's experience and personality at Fleming Tractor," stated Mr. Zumbach.

Channel 36 has Derby coverage

WTVQ-TV (Channel 36, Lexington) Program Manager Jerry W. Fox has announced the station's coverage of the 109th running of the Kentucky Derby and the festivities surrounding the 109th "run for the roses."

Channel 36 will begin its coverage of events on April 30 with the 56th Kentucky Derby Trial, live from Churchill Downs, an ABC's Wide World of Sports. The Derby Trial, a mile race with $200,000-added purse will be the final race for the top three-year-old thoroughbreds before the Kentucky Derby. ABC commentators Jim McKay and former jockey Bill Hartack will cover the race in addition to a preview of the 109th running of the Kentucky Derby and highlights of major pre-Derby races including the Bluegrass Stakes.

The following Saturday, May 7, Channel 36 will air a full day's coverage of Derby 109. The festivities will begin at 9 a.m. with a delayed broadcast of the annual "Pegasus Parade" from downtown Louisville. County helps KET

Nicholas County volunteers raised $260 during the Friends of KET County Call-Out, helping KET to exceed its $60,000 goal during the local telephone campaign conducted during TeleFund '83. With 70 counties participating in more than a thousand Kentuckians assisted in the drive, which brought in more than $82,000 in pledges. An additional $4,000 in matching funds from Corporate and Public Broadcasting also will be granted to KET for the volunteer time contributed during the County Call-Out. The County Coordinator was Bill Guthrie.

Local FHA members attend state meeting

"Program Your Life Through FHA/HERO," the theme of the 38th annual State Meeting of Future Homemakers of America held in Louisville, April 28-30, focused on members using FHA/HERO skills to aid them in preparing their lives for the future.

Leatha Ring, Barbara Payne, Evelyn Shrout, Susanne Jones, Gina Sibert, Melody Hill, Mary Beth Knapke, Pam Sparks, Jo Ellen Howard and Nancy Fryman attended the conference with chapter advisers Martha Taylor, Bonnie Metcalfe and Kathy Green. Eight of the above members received State Degrees. Pam Sparks served on the State Publicity Committee. Gina Sibert presided at the "Micro Computer in the Home" special interest session. Melody Hill and Pam Sparks served as voting delegates.

The Reverend Charles Flener, chaplain for the Jefferson County Police Department, was the keynote speaker. Special interest sessions were conducted for all members and this year, a FUN Fair was held to raise money for the new national headquarters in Reston, VA. Vickie Kimbro, national FHA/HERO president from Tennessee was present at the meeting.

Scholarships and honorary memberships were presented during the banquet Friday evening. Among these presentations was one in honor of Mrs. Agnes Foster, former state adviser, who retired Jan. 31.

The Kentucky Association of Future Homemakers of America is an integral part of the home economics program in secondary schools and is supported by the Bureau of Vocational Education, State Department of Education. Mrs. Helen Shyrock is the state adviser.
