Blue Grass honors employees with new award presentations

Jockey International and Blue Grass Industries and Knitting presented their first annual Distinguished Service Awards on Friday, Sept. 30, during their personnel appreciation day Oktoberfest celebration.

This award was presented to Florence Wilson from the Blue Grass Industries plant and to Wanda Shrout from the Blue Grass Knitting plant. In addition, there were awards presented to an employee from the Mt. Sterling as well as the Cynthiana plants.

The Jockey/Blue Grass Distinguished Service Award is the most prestigious award an employee may receive. This award is given in recognition for an individual's significant contribution in perpetuating the Jockey "ideal" reflecting the best in a person — a commitment to loyalty, integrity and service, and the dedication with which one conducts his daily life with his fellowman.

All employees, salaried and hourly (not including division vice presidents) are eligible for this award. Employees in each location nominated candidates for this year's recipients.

A plaque recognizing the recipients will be placed in a prominent area in each plant location. A personalized certificate is presented to each individual receiving this award. The golden Jockey statue with the individual's name inscribed thereon is also presented along with a check for $200 net in cash. An additional contribution from Jockey/Blue Grass in the amount of $200 will also be made to that person's church or favorite charity. A total of 10 awards are given each year.

Florence Wilson, the Carlisle Blue Grass Industries recipient of the 1983 Jockey/Blue Grass Distinguished Service Award has been with the company for over 18 years. Her life is filled with her work, her family and her church.

Mrs. Wilson is an active member of the Kingdom Hall Jehovah Witness of Paris, where she attends regular services Sunday and Thursday. She attends Watch Tower Study on Monday and Tuesday evenings. She also spends a good deal of time visiting the sick in homes and hospitals.

Mrs. Wilson and her husband Stanley have two daughters, Linda and Wanda. They reside in Carlisle.

Wanda Shrout, the Blue Grass Knitting recipient of the 1983 Jockey/Blue Grass Distinguished Service Award has been with Blue Grass since it operated out of a remodeled garage in downtown Carlisle in 1954. Mrs. Shrout takes an active part in company activities. She has received many awards for her efforts on the company's bowling league. She was one of the charter members of the Blue Grass Credit Union and has served as a credit union officer for the past six years.

Mrs. Shrout has participated in the Business and Professional Women's Organization; the Nicholas County Hospital Auxiliary; the Nicholas County Historical Society, and has been an active member of the Marie Chapter 259 Order of the Eastern Star for 20 years. She has held several offices in the Marie Chapter including worthy matron. She is also a member of the Past Matrons and Past Patrons Club, and the Worthy Matrons Club.

She and her husband Jimmy have one daughter and two grandchildren. They reside in Carlisle.

Louisville firm has been selected 'Contractor of Year'

F.M. Malone Jr. Enterprises Inc., Louisville, has been selected as the Kentucky "Contractor of the Year" for its outstanding success in the U.S. Small Business Administration's 8(a) Program. Under that program, the agency directs federal procurement to small firms owned by socially and economically disadvantaged persons, most of whom are minorities.

Oct. 3-7 has been proclaimed by President Reagan as Minority Enterprise Development Week to honor the nation's 400,000 minority-owned businesses and point up their contributions to the nation's economy.

4-H in Nicholas alive and well!

Nicholas County 4-H programs involve 728 young people in projects and activities throughout the year. Young people may select projects or activities of interest to them. Activities include Talent Show, Talk Meet, Charm School, Dress Revue, Bicycle Rodeo, Poster Contest, Livestock Judging and County Fair. Projects are available to work on at home or in groups. Popular projects selected by Nicholas County youth include clothing, foods, beef, woodcraft, photography and arts and crafts. One new special interest club involving the horse and pony project has generated much new enthusiasm this year. The group recently sponsored a youth horse show.

During National 4-H Week, the fourth, fifth and sixth graders will celebrate with a county-wide hayride. In addition, Mrs. Sue Raney, local 4-H leader, is attending Rock Eagle Leadership Forum in Estonton, Ga., and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Guthrie will attend the 4-H Salute to Excellence in Berea.

One hundred sixty-two volunteer leaders contributed time to the Nicholas County 4-H program during 1983. The 4-H Council consists of adults who devote a great deal of time planning projects and activities for the young people throughout the year. Members of the council are: Mrs. Roger Livingood, president; Mrs. Charles Guthrie, vice-president; Charles Guthrie, secretary; Mrs. Tom Ockerman, treasurer; Mr. and Mrs. G.L. Curtsinger, Sue Raney, Tom Ockerman, Libby Moss, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Buzzard, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Watkins, Mrs. William Dampier, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Judge, William Bean, Roger Rice, Tony Smith and Roger Livingood.

Later this fall Miss Susanne Jones will attend National 4-H Congress in Chicago. Susanne is the first Nicholas County 4-H member to attend this prestigious affair in 10 years. She was the state winner in Career Exploration and recently won the Conrad Feltner Leadership Award.

4-H is alive and well in Nicholas County. During National 4-H Week let us salute 4-H members and leaders for a job well done.

Kentucky Textiles honorees

Among Kentucky Textiles' 21 employees that were inducted into KT's "Pioneer Club" Saturday for completing 15 years of service were three Nicholas County residents. They are, left to right, Geraldine Fryman, Billy Bromagen and Lucille Owings. During the annual banquet and business meeting held at the Spindletop Hall in Lexington Saturday evening, each of the honored personnel with 15 years of service was presented with a service award watch to commemorate their accomplishment. Also pictured are Verndalene Lyons, ... from left, who was recognized for 20 years of service, and Kay Shumate, far left, who was honored for 25 years as a Pioneer Patron. All reside in Nicholas County. Pictured with the group is Wayne Shumate, far right, chief executive. — Photo submitted.
