

UK Sports Report

The Kentucky-Valentine basketball game is a much awaited and roundball fans might have expected the UK to be surprised by the team who has "fried the roof" — something that would first have been done by the "locker room" coach Danny Crum?

How about UK's usually outspoken Bob Gray's 15-11 straight taking Lancaster Garden? If you guessed any of the above, give yourself a zero.

Jackets stun Wildcats 40-7

By Rhonda Vaughn
The Nicholas County Bluejackets defeated the Bath County Wildcats 40-7 in a football game at Carlisle last Friday night. The win gave the Bluejackets the championship of the second district of the third region in Class A.

The first two possessions set the pace as the Jackets mounted sustained drives of 60 yards. Nicholas County, however, running through, may have surprised the Wildcats. The game was a surprise to the seven-year-old coaching team. Kentucky is court-shiping the Wildcats.

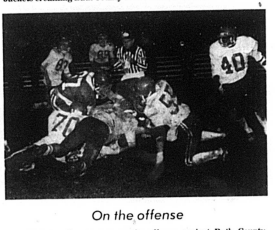

Bob Watkins, QB, is seen in action during the game.

Phillips sets national mark for dragsters
Mike Phillips, county dragster to make Friday last weekend with one thing in mind: to break the national record of 5.8 seconds.

Phillips set a new record of 5.8 seconds for a quarter mile. He was the only driver to run in the 5-second range.

Hopkins on the move
Robert Hopkins, 41, picks up tough yardage as Greg Robinson, 66, moves to assist in the game Friday night with the Jackets creaming Bath County 40-7.
