School board

The board approved the 10-40 Adult Education Program as presented by Larry Fields and recommended by the superintendent.
Due to an overwhelming response from the public, registration for the Academy of Performing Arts is being continued indefinitely.
The Academy, sponsored by Morehead State University and several regional educational institutions, offers music and dance classes in Morehead, Ashland, Wayne County, Stearns, Pineville, Jackson, Whitesburg and Prentissburg. Individual instruction is also available.
"We're replying as quickly as possible, but we have gotten so many responses that it is taking longer than we had anticipated," said Kuhn.
For a complete list of courses available and registration information, contact Kuhn at 606-783-2463.

AKA FUNDS ARE APPROVED
The Nicholas County School District has received written approval of the district's Education for Handicapped Act (EHA), Part B application for funds. Funds authorized under EHA, Part B, are for providing services for children not already receiving needed services and the identification, location and evaluation of handicapped children. Funds are also used for providing educational programs to newly identified and handicapped children.
All procedural safeguards for handicapped children and their parents in decisions regarding educational programs and confidentiality of files of those children identified as handicapped will continue to be instituted. The approved application will be on file in the office of the Superintendent of the Nicholas County School District for any interested person.
