Wilson reports seven fires

Fire Chief Woody Wilson reports there have been seven fires since Sept. 10.

On Sunday, Sept. 18, at 10:50 a.m. one mile east of Carlisle on the Moorefield Road, a 1980 Olds Cutlass Supreme belonging to Larry Bretz caught fire around the carburetor, damaging wiring and carburetor. The cause was unknown.

Then at 1:35 p.m. on Sept. 18, a house owned by Dr. Donald Cameron, at the intersection of Persimmon Ridge and Ishmael Roads, was completely destroyed. The tenant was Emanuel Hollar. Cause is unknown.

On Monday, Sept. 19, at 9:00 a.m., six miles southwest of Carlisle at Lower Jackstown Lake, a 1972 Ford belonging to Mrs. Dorothy Gray was damaged by a gas fire around the carburetor. There was approximately $275 damage that was covered by insurance.

At 4:50 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 22, four miles west of Carlisle off Highway 68 at the property of Mrs. Jean Wallen, a wood, brush and grass fire burned approximately one-fourth acre.

On Saturday, Sept. 24, at 9:45 p.m., ten miles northwest of Carlisle on the Ball Hill road, a house belonging to David Tipton with Sharon Warmouth as the tenant, was damaged by fire caused by a bad flue. The $2500 damage was covered by insurance.

At 1:55 p.m. Sept. 24, one and one-half miles from Carlisle on the East Union Road at the property of Larry Trussell, a grass fire burned out of control. There was no damage.

Then at 10:15 p.m. six miles east of Carlisle on the Gravel Road, Moorefield, a 1977 Olds Cutlass Supreme was completely destroyed when a shortage under the instrument panel started a fire. The car was owned by Henry and Gladys Watkins.

PARENTHOOD 2-DAY SEMINAR PLANNED

Planned Parenthood of Louisville is marking its 50th birthday by sponsoring a two-day seminar, "Parenting in the 80's." This will be held Tuesday, Oct. 11, and Wednesday, Oct. 12, on the second floor of the YWCA Building, 604 South Third Street, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Tuesday and 9 a.m. to 4:45 p.m. on Wednesday.

The seminar is free to the public except for a charge of $6.50 per day to those who wish to attend the luncheons. The luncheon speaker on Tuesday will be Burton L. White, director, The Center for Parent Education, Newton, Mass. The luncheon speaker on Wednesday will be Hedda Sharapan, associate producer, WQED, Pittsburgh, "Mister Rogers' Neighborhood." Anyone wishing to attend either or both luncheons should call Planned Parenthood for reservations or send in the reservation form from the "Parenting in the 80's" brochure, announcing the seminar.

The University of Louisville School of Medicine, Office of Continuing Education, will award 1.4 CEU's and physicians may receive 11.5 hours of Category 2 credit for attendance.

Date Changed

The regular monthly meeting of the Carlisle City Council will be held Oct. 3, 1983 due to a Holiday on Oct. 10 (the regular meeting date). The meeting will start at 7:30 P.M.

The City Office will be closed Oct. 10.

U of L organizes advisory board

The University of Louisville has received a grant for the organization of an advisory board for the Kentucky Natural Resources and Environmental Protection Cabinet in its consideration of a decommissioning plan for the Maxey Flats Low-Level Nuclear Waste Disposal Site.

The board consists of 16 members drawn from the state's institutions of higher education and public agencies. The members represent a wide range of experience and expertise in public affairs and technical fields. Most of them are experienced in several sciences related to nuclear technology and waste engineering as well as geology and related areas.

The board will be assisted by the U of L Government Law Center of the Urban Studies Center, a unit of the new College of Urban and Public Affairs. The project director is Dr. Dee Ashley Akers, director of the Government Law Center.

The advisory board plans to meet at four different locations between August and November. The first meeting was held at the University of Louisville Thursday, Aug. 18. The second meeting will involve a tour of the Maxey Flats site.

For further information, contact Dr. Akers in the Government Law Center at 588-6508.
