Kay's Kitchen

By Kay Fisher

One of the nicest things about spring is being able to have really fresh vegetables. They may be expensive, but for the special Easter dinner I think we should have them. Save somewhere else. The following vegetables have been on the market several weeks, so maybe they are not quite as expensive now.

Remember when it comes to preparing fresh vegetables, the simplest way is often the best way. Not only do you taste more fresh flavor, but the reduced cooking time preserves color and nutrients.

SAUTEED ZUCCHINI

1 small onion, chopped
2 tablespoons vegetable oil
1 cup fresh sliced mushrooms
1 pound zucchini, sliced
1 teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
½ teaspoon dried whole thyme
¼ cup grated Parmesan cheese

Saute onion in hot oil until tender. Add next five ingredients; cook over low heat, stirring often, 5-7 minutes or until zucchini is crisp tender. Sprinkle with cheese and serve immediately. Serves 4. To serve more simply double the vegetables, and season to taste.

CARROTS IN BRANDY SAUCE

3 cups sliced carrots
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
2 tablespoons all-purpose flour
1 cup chicken broth
2 tablespoons brandy
¼ cup diced green pepper
1 teaspoon diced onion
½ teaspoon chopped fresh parsley

Cook carrots, covered, in a small amount of salted water about 20 minutes, or until tender; drain and set aside.

Melt butter in a heavy saucepan over low heat; add flour, stirring until smooth. Cook 1 minute, stirring constantly. Gradually add broth; cook over medium heat, stirring constantly until thickened and bubbly. Stir in brandy. Gently stir in carrots and remaining ingredients; cook until thoroughly heated. Sometimes the addition of a teaspoon of sugar helps, depends on your taste.

ALMOND ASPARAGUS

1 pound fresh asparagus spears
2 tablespoons butter
1 tablespoon lemon juice
½ cup slivered almonds, toasted
Salt to taste and pepper

Snap off tough ends of asparagus, and remove scales from stalks with a knife or vegetable peeler.

Melt butter in a large skillet; add asparagus and saute 3-6 minutes. Cover skillet; simmer until asparagus is crisp tender. Add the remaining ingredients and combine gently.

SPINACH SOUFFLE

3 tablespoons butter
3 tablespoons flour
1 cup milk
½ teaspoon salt
4 egg yolks
5 egg whites
Spinach, cooked and well drained, should be 1½-2 cups.
Sauteed mushrooms

Grease and lightly flour a two-quart casserole. Make a cream sauce of butter, flour and milk. Add salt. Cool for half a minute, then stir in well-beaten egg yolks. Add the cooked, drained spinach. Fold in egg whites that have been beaten until stiff but not dry, add immediately after beating. Put in casserole and bake at 375 degrees for 35-50 minutes, or until top is lightly browned. Watch closely after 35 minutes. Serve with sauteed mushrooms.

Following Show and Tell a potluck lunch was enjoyed by everyone. Mrs. Gladys Duncan served a bread she had made as part of our lesson.

After lunch Mrs. Duncan had our lesson on casserole cookery. She also shared information about freezing cakes and proper diet.

Mrs. Lela Allison had games. Mrs. Hillock and Mrs. Diana Wills won prizes.

The meeting was adjourned by everyone telling something funny or embarrassing that happened to them one Easter.

Howard wins leadership award

Jo Ellen Howard, Nicholas County High School senior, is among a group of students being given leadership awards at MSU for 1984-85.

"Miss Howard is an outstanding individual with a superb record of academic achievement," President Morris L. Norfleet said. "We are most pleased that she will be joining our academic community this fall."

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald C. Howard of Carlisle and a member of the student council. She belongs to Who's Who Among American High School Students.

To be considered for a leadership award, the recipient must provide evidence of leadership in school and community activities and provide a grade-point average and ACT scores for consideration. The awards are given on a competitive basis.

"We are truly looking forward to welcoming Jo Ellen into our academic school," said Dr. Charles Derrickson, dean of the School of Applied Sciences and Technology. Her intended major is nursing.

Banks help endow chair at UK

Donations from more than a hundred banking and financial institutions have made possible an endowed chair in banking and financial services at the University of Kentucky.

Contributing to a fund-raising drive to establish the chair were the Deposit Bank and the First National Bank of Carlisle.

An endowed chair -- this one for $1 million -- is where funds are generated and invested in sufficient enough amounts to earn income to pay the salary and related expenses of a renowned scholar.

The new chair will be in the UK College of Business and Economics. Donald J. Mullineaux, an economist and Federal Reserve Board official, will be the first "occupant" of the chair.

"The banking industry of this state is to be congratulated for its generosity," said UK President Otis Singletary. "Thousands of students and the financial industry itself will benefit from this educational investment," Singletary added.

Donors to the chair were honored at a special "appreciation day" program in Lexington recently.
