Break-ins

Chick's Used Car Lot reported to the sheriff's office that thieves had removed four new hub caps from a 1981 Buick Regal. The other hub cap was on a Pontiac Grand Prix had been badly damaged in an unsuccessful attempt to pry them loose from the wheels.

"THAT SAME NIGHT," a quantity of 50 new parts and gloves were stolen from Bob Harvey's Gas on the Lower Jacktown Road.

Residents are advised to keep their doors locked at all times when not at home. Since the holiday season has always been a high theft time of the year, it is wise to alert a neighbor of any planned absence and report any suspicious activity to the sheriff's office immediately.
