W-2 forms necessary to file taxes

Employees employed during 1983 should receive Form W-2, "Wage and Tax Statement," from their employers by Feb. 31, 1984. Even if you worked only part of the year, you must be furnished a statement. Form W-2 provides a record of the amount of wages that you were paid, and the amount of federal income tax withheld. It also shows the amount of social security (FICA) tax that was withheld from your wages, and any unemployment insurance (UI) tax on tips. The form is important because a copy of it must accompany your tax return as proof of income and tax withheld. Taxpayers who worked for more than one employer during the year must attach a Form W-2 from each employer. If you have not received a Form W-2 from each of your employers by mid-February you should first check with your employer. After making a reasonable effort to obtain the Form W-2 and having been unsuccessful, it should contact your local IRS office or call the IRS at 1-800-410-1040 elsewhere in Kentucky. Occasionally, a taxpayer receives a "Wage and Tax Statement" which contains the wrong social security number or incorrect dollar amounts. In case of an error, ask that your employer issue a Form W-3 to replace the incorrect W-2. A copy of the Form W-3 must be attached to the original statement received, should be filed with your return.
