

UK Sports Report

Boles. Kentucky's newest Varsity Letter Board had its first meeting last night on the floor at Stage Arena for the first time last week. What did the new board graduate of Lexington Bryan Blaine speak about in his first speech? "Without me and what?"

"Thank God" was back home," he said smiling. "That's what I was thinking when we were being dragged 15 miles playing here during the State Tournament. But I wasn't worried about getting to play tonight tonight Mississippi State to win UK's crown."

"It's a heck for Dicky (Boles)," he said. "That, right now I'm just glad to be home again."

Derry Classic. Basketball fans in Kentuckiana will have an opportunity for a first April 1st Freedom Hall in Louisville.

With the NCAA's banning the Derry Classic, Al Blair game returns in high style with a free-trade ticket.

"I think it's going to be the best Derry Classic we've ever had for," said Bob Hahn, executive director of the former Central City High coaches.

Today they are featuring an exciting real quality play team.

Along with the vintage game has continued to attract, here are some of the high school seniors who will be featured to play in the Derry Classic: Mike Abrams (Madison County); Mike (Louisville); Steve Miller (Western); Herbert Crook (Anderson); Henderson (Georgetown); Craig Johnson (DUCA); Tyrone Jones (Kannan); Robert Lewis, Richard Medson, Ed Davender and Todd Zager (Kentucky); John Williams (Anderson); and Marky U. County High.

"Tickets will be on sale in March. More information will be furnished then.

Yale favorites. Yale fans had mixed feelings about what happened on Saturday, Jan. 4. A native of Princeton in Caldwell County, Ky., wrote in the newspaper information director of the University of Louisville who had a job in position in 1982. The Jan. 4 had a job in position as the UK Wildcats crushed the boys' basketball team in a 100-84 rout. "I was sitting up late at night with his father, Russell, talking to the Kentucky Wildcats play the game."

"I loved Central City," he said. "He was the first one I remember. It was a big fan of his. But my all-time favorite was the Pat Hillyer/Joan Hanger team. And that's 1963."

"Yeah, boy, he killed me when they played Western," he said. "I can still remember their guard stealing the ball from Lester two straight times down the floor."

As a young man, Yates transferred to Louisville where he was still and developed a strong ability to run an NCAA championship with U of L in 1980.

Now, Yates is in the employ of U of L, never a favorite with UK or of U. L. basketball fans.

How does he handle it?

"Well, I have three teams I root for. I've been in Louisville. I root for all of them."

Comment. Good luck.

UK Luck. Interesting tidbit in the Los Angeles Times last week about UK's second football coach, the 6-11, 250-pounder, bald, Andy Dargatzis of the Fresno Bee that he chose Kentucky over UCLA and Arizona State, because "Once I visited Kentucky, I had a pretty good idea that's where I wanted

Bluejackets capture third win; fall to Greyhounds in overtime

By Rhonda Vaughn

The Nicholas County Bluejackets will play American County Friday night at the high school.

Last Tuesday's game against MCM was canceled because of weather conditions.

On Friday, the Jackets traveled to Richmond to play the Richmond Model Bears and the game was canceled because of weather conditions. "The game was canceled because of weather conditions," said Coach Larry Farmer who was visiting with Coach's assistant, Tom Williams and the players who were already here or between him and the coaches, the Bluejackets said. "The game was canceled because of weather conditions."

The Bluejackets will play American County Friday night at the high school.

In the first quarter the score was 1-0 in favor of the Bluejackets.

The game ended with Paris M. Nicholas 34.

The Greyhounds dominated the second quarter, ending the first half 20-22.

In the last five minutes of the third quarter the Jackets started coming back and at the end had narrowed the score to Greyhounds 45, Jackets 42.

In the fourth quarter, the Jackets scored to tie the Greyhounds and ended the game 45-45.

Jackets M Greyhounds M

The Jackets started the scoring with eight points in the first five minutes of the game while the Paris Greyhounds held scoreless. But then the Greyhounds started scoring and ended the game, 58-45.

In the last five minutes Steve Anderson was fouled. His first shot was good, but missed the second. Jack Carter followed rebounded and freed a last-second shot. The referee first called it good, then retracted the basket.
