A Special Thank You

My family and I want to thank the people of Nicholas County for your outstanding support during the recent Primary Election.

I'd also want to thank the many people that worked so hard for my re-election. It is very much appreciated.

The election is now over and we need to work together to address the vital issues before us. I need the input of everyone, and I encourage you to express your views and comments on any or all issues.

Thank You, Adrian K. Arnold, Representative, 14th District
