Takes exception to drug charges

It is unfortunate that a good deal of the attention has been given to our respective board members and their similarity to the system of Nicholas County. Most of these indignities between which in fact, and what I believe, I must take issue with. I do not think that "probably the hardest work for teachers to overcome today is drug."

I am sure to have to take my school system to drug free. As soon as I was notified that you had taken issue with it, I would probably be right. But to say to us that our problem is an affront to the majority of our students and the parents who raised them.

I have found most of our students to be honest, hardworking, and to complete control of their lives. They have very definite ideas about what they wish to contribute to society. It would be a travesty to keep them from the life which cannot give life real satisfaction. The readers of the Mercury are going to conclude that our school system is drug free.

Can a high school which ranks 18th of 18 in the CTBS be drug-free? Can it be a state which ranks 18th of 18 in the state in efficiency in management? Can it be a state which ranks 18th of 18 in the state in efficiency in management?

Can a high school which is drug ridden be a state which is drug free? Can it be a state which is drug free? Can it be a state which is drug free? Can it be a state which is drug free?

I certainly hope that any future school board members will thoroughly investigate the facts before they make their recommendations. I hope they take the many good points that are being made and creatively spin them. We will have a program that will help Nicholas County will have a better school system as a result.

Governor supports town forums

To the Carlisle Mercury: On November 13, the Governor of Kentucky will take another important step in opening discussions on the future of education in Kentucky. I would like to see an expression in a public square in support of this use of education.

It is our hope that we will be able to continue our efforts in support of our educational system for a long time to come.

Linda Vandenberg and Connie Howard, sponsors

To the Carlisle Mercury: I would like to express my appreciation to all those who helped to make this possible.

Hot off the presses... The Mercury has received a review copy of Carlisle and Caring in Caring and Kentucky. Its author is Dr. William E. Davis of North Middletown, who has for his medical contributions before he returned to 1963.

Here Abouts... Carlisle and Caring is intended to become our copy. For a "name" writer, it is a good idea to have a name that is not too long and not too short.

It is our hope that we will be able to continue our efforts in support of our educational system for a long time to come.

Agree or not

Education a taxing situation

It is not surprising that after 1963 year for Gov. Martin Ray, the state will have to raise taxes to pay for the education program for the legislature.

However, the Appropriations and revenue interim committees have already begun to study new sources of revenue and Mrs. Collins' Career and Education Committee has prepared a study of taxes and needs for education.

Down Memory Lane

FDR reelected for third term

Thursday, November 8, 1944. Franklin D. Roosevelt was reelected for a third term as president of the United States. He was the only president to be elected to three terms.

At the time of his re-election, Roosevelt was in the middle of his second term. He had been elected in 1933 and 1937. His re-election in 1944 was a testament to his leadership during the war.
