Mrs. Kent Edward Cooper

Peratt-Cooper wedding held in Flemingsburg

Miss Phyllis Darlene Peratt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Peratt, Flemingsburg, and Kent Edward Cooper, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Cooper, Flemingsburg, were married Saturday, Sept. 22, 1984, 2:30 p.m. at the Flemingsburg Christian Church with the Rev. Norman H. Wasson officiating.

Gordon Peratt, brother of the bride, was soloist. He was accompanied by Mrs. Karen Sanders, pianist, and Mrs. Helen Fern, organist.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father and given in marriage by her parents, wore a white chantilly lace gown with long bishop sleeves. The sheer Victorian neckline was lavished with sequins and edged with narrow satin ribbon. Flounces at the top of the sleeves formed the cathedral train. Attached to the gown were three satin ribbon bows with layers of lace, trimmed with satin ribbon on the hemline. The two-tiered fingertip illusion veil was edged with matching lace attached to a chantilly lace cap. She carried a bouquet of gardenias and white roses, interspersed with baby breath.

Miss Rose Ann Dugan, maid of honor, wore a light blue formal gown of sheer polyester with a pleated surplice bodice. The flounced sleeves were elasticized at the shoulders and edges. The slightly raised waistline with flower and satin ribbon trim fell into a full skirt. She wore a blue picture hat and carried two white, long stemmed roses, tied with blue ribbon.

Mrs. Shirley Wilson of Carlisle, cousin of the bride, Ms. Kelly Flora and Ms. Kim Cooper, sister of the groom, were bridesmaids. They wore gowns and hats identical to the maid of honor and carried one white, long stemmed rose.

Miss Heather Sapp, daughter of Melinda Coatney and Billy Sapp, was flower girl. She was dressed identical to the attendants and carried a basket filled with flower petals which she sprinkled down the aisle.

Rob Campbell was best man. Danny Peratt, brother of the bride, Johnny Saunders and Tim Corner of Maysville were the groomsmen.

Kayne Ishmael, cousin of the bride and son of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Ishmael Jr., was the ringbearer.

Ms. Karla Cooper, sister of the groom, was at the guest book and Ms. Keena Cooper, sister of the groom, distributed programs and scrolls.

Immediately following the wedding, a reception was held in the fellowship hall. Assisting were Ms. Jeanette Cummins, the bride's aunt, Ms. Bev Gray, Ms. Tamara Johnson and Ms. Carolyn Scott, all cousins of the bride.

After a wedding trip to the Bahamas the couple will reside in Flemingsburg.

Mrs. Cooper is the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd R. Peratt of Flemingsburg and the late Mr. and Mrs. John G. McCarty of Carlisle.

Kay's Kitchen

By Kay Fisher

If you have to prepare lunch every day and are tired of the quick sandwich and cold salad, here are some suggestions. The cooler days make chili a welcome change — an old standby, but here is an easy recipe.

EASY CHILI

1 pound ground chuck
1 quart cooked tomatoes
1 large onion, chopped
1 large green pepper, cut into strips
1 package French's Chili-O seasoning mix

Brown meat in heavy skillet. Add remaining ingredients and cook about 30 minutes on low heat. If desired add one can chili beans. If you don't like the beans in chili you may add two cups cooked elbo macaroni.

SCRAMBLED EGGS WITH TOMATOES

1 tablespoon butter
1 teaspoon finely minced onion
1 cup strained tomatoes
½ teaspoon brown sugar, or more
Salt and pepper
4 beaten eggs

Melt butter in heavy skillet; add onion, tomatoes, sugar, salt and pepper and cook until onion is tender, about five minutes. Add the eggs and cook over low heat until eggs are cooked to your liking. Serve on buttered toast spead with deviled ham.

For a luncheon dish add dried beef to scrambled eggs. Use the beef in packages rather than that in a glass jar. It is less salty. Simply cut the beef in small pieces, saute in butter and add desired number of beaten eggs. Scramble to desired doneness.

ROLLS WITH HAM MIXTURE

Cut the tops off four large hard rolls and hollow out centers. Combine and mix well:

2 tablespoons chopped onion
2 tablespoons catsup
2 tablespoons chopped green pepper
2 tablespoons chopped pickles
4 oz. cubed sharp cheese
½ cup finely cut cooked ham
4 tablespoons melted margarine

Fill the rolls with this mixture. Wrap in foil or wax paper and bake in a 375-degree oven until heated through.

Add a little zip to creamed chipped beef. Pull the chipped beef into small pieces. In 3 tablespoons of margarine saute until light brown 3 tablespoons minced onion, 3 tablespoons minced green pepper. When brown sprinkle with 3 tablespoons of flour and slowly add two cups of milk, stirring constantly. Add the 5 ounces of torn chipped beef. When thickened, season with 1 tablespoon fresh minced parsley, dash of paprika, 1 tablespoon of Worcestershire sauce or 2 tablespoons of dry sherry.

PREVENT FIRE

Don't give fire a chance to start. Clean up cluttered areas in attics and basements. Don't overload electrical outlets. Store flammable products safely. Keep matches away from children. Don't smoke cigarettes in bed. Simple steps like these can save you tragic complications later on. Play it safe ... be fire safe.

Meet the Rayers:
one of many electric heat pump families.

"When we built our new house, we had a choice between gas and electric heating. Of course, we asked around, and people who have heat pumps recommended them.

"It wasn't any contest. We chose an electric heat pump, and not only are our operating costs reasonable — we find the gentle, even temperature of the heat pump very comfortable.

"We feel it's a very efficient system, and it provides a healthy, clean atmosphere.

"We like the heat pump's advantages. But they don't surprise us. After all, our townhouse had electric heating, too."

Hopkins MMI alumni dinner speaker Friday

Fall is the traditional season for school homecomings. Kentucky's official military school, Millersburg Military Institute, is holding its Homecoming on Oct. 12 and 13, according to school president, Dr. Alan Saunders. Family, friends and alumni will gather on the Millersburg campus for weekend activities.

But this year Homecoming promises some surprises. Besides a dance for the cadets, a soccer game and a full dress parade by the Cadet Corps, the MMI alumni are hosting a reunion dinner at 7:30 p.m. Friday, Oct. 12, at Carnico Country Club.

The alumni group will hear an after-dinner address by Congressman Larry Hopkins from Lexington.

What makes this Homecoming unique is the invitation list. The MMI alumni have invited the Kentucky Military Institute's alumni to join in a combined, nostalgic "Military School Reunion Weekend."

KMI, founded in 1845, was located in Lyndon, Ky. until it closed its doors in the early 1970s. Its alumni have not had a campus to rally support around since then.

MMI's alumni association president, John Brater of Harrison, Ohio is certain there will be several speeches at the reunion dinner from both alumni groups, supporting private education. There is renewed interest throughout the country in military school educational programs.

This year the MMI enrollment is near its capacity of 100 cadets. The students come from Kentucky and 10 other states.
