

UK Sports Report

Pulling Kentucky's recent setback may well push Coach Jerry Claiborne's Wildcats into the Top 20 this week.

Five of the nation's Top 20 teams last Saturday including—ready for this—No. 11 Auburn (5-0), No. 17 Arizona (5-2) and No. 19 Pittsburgh (5-1).

Even if UK's 2-0 record does not do the trick—since they have come against nonconference teams—Coach Claiborne's Wildcats are another impressive uniting this Saturday against Eastern on television night to 100,000 fans.

Florida (1-2) having been honored last by Mississippi State and Florida (1-2) last Saturday. The Green Wave, described by a reporter from a week last week, "is one of the world's football teams in America this season," should be victim No. 3 for Kentucky.

UK's victory last week was not the first since last season that it was the first since Oct. 5, 1983. The Wildcats won that one 24-17.

—UK has scored 96 points in its first two games, but only 141 in a record effort, but only fourth best in 42 years. And, the 1980 team beat Southern 27 and Maryland 27 and finished only 5-1.

Early question

Jay how good is UK?

UK still could easily be told, but there can be little question about the abilities of Kentucky's leading attack. George Adams, Mark Logan and Mark Higgs could be cited the best tandem in the south.

And the key to whatever success and acclaim Adams, Logan and Higgs will have is the play of the rest of the team.

Coach Jerry Claiborne said 76 players including 30 Kentucky reserves, in the Wildcats home opener two weeks ago, but those held out of action represent an interesting array of injuries.

They include defensive backs Tom Mack (knee) third on depth chart at right halfback and Tony Baird, quarterback Bill Adams and running back Jay Hunter (knee) third on the depth chart at fullback—backer Chris Chemsell, defensive guard Jim Smith, defensive tackle Greg Walker and defensive end Joe Curry.

And basketball:

The college football season is barely underway and already basketball is in the news. A recent national preseason poll ranked Georgetown (14-4) No. 1, followed by Illinois (18-0), Duke (18-0), Oklahoma (13-2) and Indiana (22-0). Kentucky (2-1) is picked ninth, too high, at No. 13 and Louisville (0-1) 19th.
