Kay's Kitchen

By Kay Fisher

When Easter is over and you are left with a bowl full of colored eggs, here are some tasty dishes to make. After all, you can eat just so many hard-boiled and deviled eggs.

EGG-MUSHROOM IN SHELLS

1 (10-oz.) package frozen patty shells
¼ cup plus 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, divided
¼ lb. fresh mushrooms, sliced
1 tablespoon finely chopped onion
3 tablespoons flour
1½ cups milk
¾ teaspoon salt
Pepper to taste
6 hard-cooked eggs
1 tablespoon plus 1 teaspoon dry sherry
Parsley sprigs

Bake patty shells according to package directions; set aside.

Melt 2 tablespoons margarine in heavy skillet. Add mushrooms and onion; saute until tender. Melt remaining margarine in saucepan over low heat. Add flour, stirring until smooth. Cook one minute, add milk and cook over medium heat, stirring constantly until thickened. Stir in salt and pepper.

Finely chop 3 eggs. Stir chopped eggs, sauteed vegetables and sherry into sauce. Cook, stirring constantly, just until thoroughly heated. Spoon into patty shells. Garnish with remaining egg cut in six wedges, and sprigs of parsley.

EGG CASSEROLE

18 hard-cooked eggs
1 (10-oz.) can cream of mushroom soup, undiluted
1 (3-oz.) can sliced mushrooms, drained
1 (2-oz.) jar diced pimiento, drained
1 (6-oz.) can sliced water chestnuts, drained
1 cup shredded sharp cheddar cheese
½ cup milk
¼ cup sherry
1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce
¼ teaspoon salt
Pepper
Dash of hot sauce
1½ cups herb seasoned stuffing mix
¼ cup slivered toasted almonds

Combine first 12 ingredients; mix well. Spoon mixture into lightly greased 12x9x2-inch baking dish. Sprinkle stuffing mix and almonds over egg mixture. Bake at 325 degrees until bubbly.

You may easily half this recipe.

CREAMED DEVILED EGGS

6 hard-cooked eggs
1 tablespoon mayonnaise
1 tablespoon margarine, softened
1 tablespoon vinegar
1 (2½-oz.) can deviled ham
1 teaspoon prepared mustard
Cheesy Cream Sauce
3-3 tablespoons chopped fresh parsley

Slice eggs lengthwise and remove yolks. Mash yolks and add mayonnaise; mix well. Stir in next 5 ingredients. Stuff whites with mixture and arrange in lightly greased 1½ quart shallow baking dish.

Pour Cheesy Cream Sauce over eggs and bake at 350 degrees for 15 minutes. Sprinkle with parsley.

CHEESY CREAM SAUCE

2 or 3 tablespoons margarine
2 tablespoons flour
1 beef flavored bouillon cube
½ cup hot water
½ cup milk
Dash of pepper
Dash of paprika
½ cup shredded cheese (American processed cheese)

Melt margarine in heavy saucepan. Add flour, stir and cook one minute. Dissolve bouillon in hot water. Gradually add milk and bouillon to flour mixture, stirring constantly. Cook over medium heat until thickened and bubbly. Add pepper, paprika and cheese. Stir until cheese is melted. Taste for seasoning.

Health Care Auxiliary has dinner

The Nicholas County Health Care Auxiliary and Hospital Volunteer Awards dinner was held Tuesday evening, March 26, at the Nicholas County Elementary School. Individuals, boards and organizations who have been supportive to the auxiliary in their benefit projects during the year were recognized.

Awards to volunteers included recognition of some 75 volunteers who have given a total of over 40,000 volunteer hours during the last eight years. Those receiving recognition are pictured.

Reports of donations by the auxiliary to the health care facility included an employee appreciation reception, display shelves for the gift shop, two chairs upholstered for the nursing home day room and two specialized wheelchairs purchased.

Carol Sparks, retiring president, received a silver tray in recognition of her two years service to the auxiliary. Newly elected officers installed were: Linda Scott, president; Sarah Fryman, vice-president; Myrtle Ledford, secretary; Ginger Riggs, treasurer.

A plaque commemorating the dedicated service of auxiliary members who are deceased was presented and members of their families were given an appreciation certificate. The memorial plaque will hang in the hospital.

The Carlisle Community Choir, under the direction of Tom Hardin, will present a post-Easter cantata, "Then Came the Morning," written by Bill and Gloria Gaither, at the Carlisle Christian Church, Sunday, April 14 at 7 p.m.

The choir is comprised of members of the following churches: First Christian, Carlisle Christian, Carlisle Baptist, United Methodist, East Union Christian and Locust Grove Baptist.

Instrumentalists for the choir are Mrs. Marlyn Berry and Daryl McFarland. Dennis Berry and Les Hardin are narrators. Featured soloists are Rev. Allen Campbell, Mrs. Judy Hardin, Tom Hardin, Mrs. Cathy S. Mathes, Mrs. Charlotte Hardin and Mrs. Marjorie Campbell.

Immediately following the program there will be a reception in the Fellowship Hall of the church.

Miss Livingood

Livingood youth in state pageant

Miss Jo Ash Livingood, six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Livingood, was a contestant in the 1985 Kentucky Today's Little Dream Pageant at the Holiday Inn, South Airport, Louisville, March 22-23.

Contestants were between the ages of four through seven and were judged on poise, personality and appearance. The winner received a $300 cash award, crown, banner, trophy, portrait and a round trip flight to Florida to compete in the national contest Oct. 30-Nov. 2. Each contestant received a trophy and tiara.

Jo Ann is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Livingood, Moorefield, and Mr. and Mrs. E.C. Davis, Carlisle.

Shower-brunch for Miss Melton

Miss Schoen Melton, Lexington, bride-elect of Tim Dudley, was guest of honor at a miscellaneous shower and brunch Saturday, March 30, hosted by Mrs. Kimball Booth, Miss Sara Booth and Mrs. Reese Wayne Smoot at the home of Mrs. Booth on Chestnut Street.

Thirty guests were present, including relatives and friends from Stanton, Mt. Sterling, Winchester and Lexington.

The Oaks schedule told

The Oaks held a going-away party Thursday, March 14, for two-year member Jeffrey Dray, who moved the 19th to Versailles. The group presented Jeff with a trophy of appreciation and best wishes.

On Sunday, March 17, we traveled to Lexington for an early morning session of ice skating at the new Lexington Ice Arena, after which we had lunch at Duff's Smorgasbord. The group was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Gayle Vanlandingham, Mrs. John Ecton, Mrs. Fred Bowles, and guests Melody McClure, Nikki and Gail Bowles and Dale Thompson.

The Oaks have a busy spring and summer planned, with the next venture being individual performances by each group member in the upcoming 4-H sponsored talent competition.

On Tuesday, March 26, the Oaks presented their program to the Carlisle Baptist Church for their PsPP Club supper. We presented a 45-minute program of selections varying from folk to country and gospel. Also performing that evening were twin brothers Kirby and Kirk Smith.

Anyone who would like to have the Oaks perform for any function should call 289-5905 or 289-7380.
