Youth Assembly delegates

Melissa Ritchie, left; Alison Knopke and Matthew Guthrie are in Louisville this week to take part in the Kentucky Youth Assembly sponsored by the YMCA.

Three chosen delegates to Ky. Youth Assembly

Three students from Nicholas County High School are attending the 1985 YMCA-sponsored Kentucky Youth Assembly April 14 at the Hannale Inn/Hurricane Lane in Louisville.
The students, Matthew Guthrie, Alison Knopke and Melissa Ritchie, will travel to the Capitol in Frankfort on Friday to represent their counties. Each delegation has pre-filed a bill that they will try to get passed in both the Senate and the House of Representatives on that date.
Saturday morning, KYA Governor Darren J. Dorn of Mt. Sterling will announce the bills he signed into law. The Nicholas County delegation was fortunate to have their bill signed into law during the 1985 Assembly.
Local sponsors of the delegates are attorneys Charles Cox, Billy Haskins, Roger Wenzel and Joseph H. Conley; the Green Grass Industries, First National Bank of Carlisle, Deposit Bank of Carlisle, East Haven and Mark Martin Real Estate.
