Improvements warrant awards

Gary Barton, second from right, and Robert Bishop, second from left, both knitting machine mechanics at Blue Grass Knitting, are shown receiving a certificate of appreciation last week from Eddie Hill, left. Barton and Bishop improved the shipping device on knitting machines. Their improvement will help prevent needle damage plus reduce machine downtime.

Guthrie chosen as Governor's Scholar

Governor Martha Layne Collins has released the names of 417 outstanding Kentucky high school juniors chosen to attend the 1985 Governor's Scholars Program, including Matthew P. Guthrie of Nicholas County.
 Guthrie will be in residence at Marvy State and Western Kentucky universities. Dates for the session will be June 23-July 8.

 Governor Collins noted the high quality of applicants for the prestigious five-week academic enrichment program now in its 21st year.

"We also received the most applications since the program began," she said. "We are accepting more students than our stated goal of 400 because the selection committee found so many evenly matched students whom they could not turn down."
