Southern States: A farmer-owned business with the farmer in mind

Don Markland Jr., Steve Hinton, Mgr., Thrashley Markland Jr.

Nicholas County Farmers can be proud of a business they ALL own: Southern States Carlisle Coop., Inc. The Coop handles feed, seed, fertilizer & farm supplies. It is located on East Main St., Carlisle (corner E. Main & Dorsey Ave.). Store manager is Steve Hinton. In addition to farm supplies, the Coop offers petroleum. Store hours are: Mon.-Fri. 8:00 to 5:30. Sat. 8:00 to 3:00. Mr. Hinton states, "Being farmer-owned, our first commitment is to give quality products to our patrons and we intend to remain committed to this policy." He also states, "I would like to take this opportunity to encourage support from all of our customers. Your support and patronage is essential to the success of your Coop." Soon the Carlisle Coop. hopes to add 24 hour service to its gasoline pumps, install small L.P. gas cylinder filling, and expand its fertilizer facility to include liquid nitrogen and sprayer equipment. Mr. Hinton was transferred here from Winchester where he was assistant manager at the Clark Coop. He is originally from Fleming County.

OUR COMMUNITY! IT'S A LOT MORE THAN JUST A BEDROOM!

Among the things that make our town such a fascinating place to live with its many advantages are (1) a fine mixture of wonderful people, and (2) the wide variety of good businesses.

Our local stores and service firms go to great lengths and expense to serve you and serve you well.

They're close by, so they can save you time and energy. They're competitive, so they can save you money. And, they're your neighbors, which means they work beside you on community projects, and the taxes they pay stay at home to help YOU and your family.

Their goal is to keep our town a wonderful place to live...and [illegible] business.

And they can use your help.
