Kay's Kitchen

Get the picnic basket ready in less than you think. The summer holiday is not complete if you do not have at least one picnic. So select the night, be it the city park or a trip to a special wooded area, and have a relaxing evening. It need not be a picnic, but must be enjoyable. Children will love eating hot dogs and hamburgers so be sure to have plenty of what they want. It will be good to cook at home, then should they have any more for another party if expected in several layers of food. There are many layers of new paper.
