Frontier life
Catch a glimpse of frontier life Oct. 5 at Fort Boonborough State Park during the Kentucky Corp of Long/Games Interstate Invitational Tournament.

Participants from Kentucky and surrounding states will dress in authentic period costumes and compete in shooting matches from 10 p.m. A bean dinner will be provided for participants following the competition.

Hay, farmers...

State preparing directory to sell all excess forage; dinner meeting here Oct. 29

A hay directory listing the availability of surplus hay for sale by Kentucky farmers is currently being compiled by the Department of Agriculture.

Any Nicholas County farmer with excess hay to sell is asked to contact Mike Phillips, county extension agent for agricultural products.

Farmers should report the type of hay, quantity, whether the hay is in round or square bales and the price offered or sale they expect to receive.

Annual meeting of KMA Oct. 1-3

Over 2,500 Kentucky physicians, dentists and allied health professionals are expected to attend the 120th annual meeting of the Kentucky Medical Association to be held at The Club House, Louisville, on Oct. 1-3.

The President - Larchmont on Wednesday, Oct. 2 will be in honor of Charles C. Smith Jr., M.D., 1964-65 KMA president. Other highlights of the program will be the presentation of KMA's highest award and the installation of the 1985-86 KMA president, Wally O. Montgomery, M.D., Paducah.
