Grand Jury report
 "We, the Grand Jury duly convened during the period beginning May 18th of the Nicholas Circuit Court, have made our usual report to the Commonwealth of Kentucky. We have heard evidence in the case of the Commonwealth of Kentucky vs. Philip Blackburn and failed to indict for insufficient evidence. We are passing the case of the Commonwealth of Kentucky vs. James J. McCallister to the next Grand Jury for taking of additional evidence in this case." Signed: Prosecutor W. Brian

Sue Barker chairs CFF event here
 Mrs. Sue Barker has officially been appointed chairman of the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation's Spring Fund raising event. Mrs. Barker, who is a graduate of the community and support of Mrs. Barker's, will be chairing the event at the Kentucky-West Virginia Chapter of the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation on Sunday, September 14, 1986, at the Country Club in Lexington. The event will feature a variety of activities, including a golf tournament, a tennis tournament, and a raffle. Mrs. Barker is a member of the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation and has been instrumental in raising funds for the organization. The event is open to the public and all proceeds will go to the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation. For more information, contact Mrs. Barker at 234-1234.

FOR SALE!
 A country grocery and a country home. Doves and Dorothy Finch, after being offered at Bartoville for several years, have decided to retire from business. It is not from the lack of business that makes them want to sell. Their daily records will show a good business. These records will be available. Because of its location, it has a trade coming from a large area. These buildings are in excellent condition. The grocery and home can be sold separately. We have the figures and facts if you are interested.

Squirrel numbers almost double
 Squirrel season opened in Kentucky with a marked increase in numbers compared to 1985, according to information collected by the Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources. The 1986 mast crop report has not been completed to date, but only 2,125 hunters were checked by cooperation officers in 112 of the state's 120 counties. Results showed that 3,006 squirrels had been taken, but 113 hunters bagging their daily limit of six squirrels. Compared with 1985, only 18 more hunters were checked, but 216 more squirrels were taken this year.
