It's back to the sun dial ...

I was this guy or the other. Looking like he was using on a curb all hunched over and blurry-eyed.
"Probably wondering why I look like I've been shot at and missed," he said.

Before a speech to New York financial writers recently, Ira Lee Seckin, the regional administrator of the Securities and Exchange Commission in New York, described a fictitious meeting between Albert Einstein, the brilliant mathematician, and drug smugglers.

The past week I received three phone calls from telephone soliters wanting to sell me mine stock, gold and silver futures.
