Jackets open season; fall to Bourbons, Paris

Turnovers hurt us badly... We had 20 for the game, while Paris had only six.

The Nicholas County boys' basketball team didn't get off to the start first year head coach Lee Cruse would have liked.

Cruse said he had a lot of problems with his team. He had to get used to the game.

People will just go on and understand that we're a young team. We're going to have to learn.

Paris 67, Nicholas County 34. Despite having three players hitting for double figures...

Cruse said he had a lot of problems with his team. He had to get used to the game.
