Bob Watkins Sports In Kentucky

Kingpin in Kentucky at Christmas Time... A few weeks ago it was suggested in this space that it was likely the best college basketball team in Kentucky would emerge from a contest played in Bowling Green Dec. 18.

What weaknesses? Bowling and the consistency of James Chapman... Other than Jimi Valvano and North Carolina State, I'm going to be looking for Kentucky this year.

Kentucky Afield... By Norm Mink... Most deer each year are hunted in Kentucky during deer season. This annual occurrence is reported this season in Butler County where Haysler old Timmy Grice of Louisville, hunted an 11-point antlered doe, November 14.

Winston Bennett... The 4-7 team captain who will sit the season off his cast this year and says he's feeling fine. Interestingly, Bennett, even in street clothes, got preference on the Kentucky boys' help this team gives a kind of emotional stability.

Bennett/Vaseline... Last week during Kim Walker's sports talk in program on WVA's Radio a special point on items that was reported in their space two months was raised.

More Scott... Scott's a big, tough, mobile kid a role player. He's a good passer. He's not a franchise, but a floor sweeper. However, Valentine's credibility looks to be in question now.

Mr. Basketball candidate... I think, in the best player in the state. Simpson said last week "I think it's just a matter of his not getting the recognition he deserves."

Porting shot... Last week there was the one about George Beatty running back. Malt Sabej and Walter Patten. Sabej says they were on a bear hunt in Alaska. Last summer Sabej recalled waking up one night to find Patten playing pool on the beach.

UK... Without guard Vic Adams of Midlandville and safety Ron Holman of Nashville, have been named to the NBA's first team.

Kingpin in Kentucky at Christmas time? Looks like Kentucky Wildcats

What was a long time "been sick of the way they do things down there." What is a definition for "hippies?" Perhaps, at some point, Knight will share his definition with the "three or four" sportswriters he is able to locate.
