Council levies tax

In a special session Tuesday night, December 18, Carlisle City Council voted to pass a business license ordinance. The tax, which comes about through the ordinance, will apply to all businesses operating in or delivering to Carlisle. The flat rate fee will be $25, regardless of the type of business.

Taxpayers can receive help

The Internal Revenue Service has a year-round program to inform taxpayers about federal tax law changes and filing requirements, and to give guidance in the self-help preparation of tax returns. As part of the Community Outreach Program, arrangements can be made for an IRS employee to talk to your group or organization about federal taxes, including information on the Tax Reform Act of 1986, and how to complete the new
