

Like father, like daughter. This season hunting into, from left, Donna George, Pam Conn and Debbie McCarty, all of the East Union community, bopped this coon one winter night recently, thanks to Pam's dog Curly. Her father, the late Byron White, was an avid coon hunter and passed his love of the sport on to his daughter.

Could UK's NCAA trip be 'short'?

Bob Watkins
Sports in Kentucky

It's a most interesting view of UK's basketball season comes this week from Berry Miller, basketball coach at Paducah Tipton High.

"The only thing I agree with Joe [Isaiah] is that they're a far better in the NCAA. It's very well in this book, but most evolutions come bubbling up as one works through the 14 chapters.

Isaiah's book is about growing up, about family, about loving and caring, about hope, and yes, about success. Sweet success happening to a person who worked very hard because he says, "Believe it or not, I've been scared to death of failing all my life. afraid people would make fun of the way I played."

Over the way that.

Isaiah's book is a work we can identify with. Isaiah uses wit and warmth and spirit with bite, irreverence and candor.

Scholarship named for MSU's Lucke

Friends of the late Sue Lucke, Meredith State University faculty member, have established a memorial scholarship in her name.

Mrs. Lucke, an assistant professor of health, physical education and recreation, died Feb. 3 in a Lexington hospital after suffering a cerebral hemorrhage. Services were held Feb. 11 in Meredith.

Contributions earmarked for the scholarship may be made to the MSU Foundation. The scholarship will be awarded to a student majoring in health, physical education and recreation.
