

Rhoda Gillispie Circle met Jan. 14
The Rhoda Gillispie Circle of the Carlisle United Methodist Church met Tuesday at 7 p.m. in the Educational Building to plan programs for the year.

Mrs. Gladys Duncan, chairman, called the meeting to order and gave the devotional on patience.

Mrs. Fay Cropper gave the program and read from Psalm 81. Miss Fleet Allan gave the closing prayer.

'Stay in school' lecture
Dorbie Vice, counselor at Nicholas County High School, works with students who are potential dropouts on part of a program of the high school to encourage these students to stay in school. She is shown talking with the students in one of the Chapter 1 reading clinics taught by Sharon Horton, who is also working with the dropout prevention program.

The Nicholas County Health Care Auxiliary will meet Tuesday, Jan. 28 at 2 p.m. in the conference room of the Nicholas County Hospital. Officers for 1986 will be elected.

Members are invited to bring their 1985 volunteer hours. Anyone wishing to join the auxiliary is invited to contact the president.

The Fraymans host dinner
Mrs. and Mr. Lowell D. Frayman entertained recently with a family dinner at their home.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Jeff, April and Jim, William Deakin Jr., William and Colleen Deakin, Jennifer and Kimberly Ann Deakin, Miss Kathy Taylor and Jack, William Taylor and Jack, Leonard, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Price, Christine Dawn, Angela Carol and Diana Price, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Faber and Cynthia.

Charley and Andrea Fisher, Tammy Frayman, Hubert Hader, Mr. and Mrs. Humphrey Shrum, Homer Fryman, Donald, Mary and Lisa Perkins, Donald, Emily Mar, Beulah and Gerald H. Perkins II, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Fryman and Karen, Jeff Perkins, Pam Hader, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hopkins and Ryan Troutman, Greg Fryman, and David Stewart.

Hospital notes
ADMISSIONS: Chloese Steele, Sheriff Mitchell, Marie McKee, Ray Maiklin, Mr. Olivet, Rosie Martin, Jefferyson, Kimberly McFarland, Moorefield; Edgar Pettit Sharpshour; Robert Allen and Stella Fryman, George Vaughn, Dorothy Frederick.

Willsborough, Richard Mitchell, Settee, Carlisle; Marie McKee, Ray Maiklin, Mr. Olivet, Rosie Martin, Jefferyson, Kimberly McFarland, Moorefield; Edgar Pettit Sharpshour; Robert Allen and Stella Fryman, George Vaughn, Dorothy Frederick.

Discharges: Frances Hall, Sarah Sims, Ruby Traxler, Franklin Jackson, Alma Clinkenberr, Lisa Watkins, Bealer Willsborough, Janette McFarley, Shirley Mitchell, Ella Dale King, Guy, Avery Mitchell, Douglas Frazier, Jeff Bailey, Claudine Steele, George Vaughn, David Hunt, Anthony Poe, Melissa Warner, Cynthia Fryman, Walter George, Carole Moreland, Carlisle, Perry Price, Ewing, Judith Martin, Moorefield, Mabel Stewart, Marie McKee, Howard Martin, Mr. Olivet, Stacy Jolly, Moorefield, Jackie Anderson, Owingay, Edgar Pettit Sharpshour.

Mammography is talk topic
Mammography is the topic of discussion at the Regional Hospital Women's Health Forum on Tuesday, Jan. 28. The program will be held in Meadowbrook dining room from 7-9 p.m.

Madame will present two Women's Health Forum programs every quarter. The next program is scheduled for Feb. 11 with Dr. David Daily discussing endometriosis. Anyone interested can call Janet Sullivan, Patient Education director, at 239-2181.

DANCE at the Lions Club Park
Fri., Jan. 24, 8 to 12
"THE FLAT CREEK BOYS" with Marvin Carroll on the Fiddle
Admission: $2.00 per person
Come and join the fun. For more information call 239-2181.

SOLETT'S

To place Society items, call Mrs. Ann Shearer at 299-2464

Homecoming party is held
Mrs. Ruby Stewart and Mrs. Karen Milton entertained with a homecoming party for Jimmy and Jeffrey Trichter, Sunday, Jan. 19 at the home of Mrs. Janette Kitchin.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Stewart of Mt. Olivet; Mrs. Nancy Shert, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Howles, Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Vaughn, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Fryman and Tony Lee Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kitchin and Patrick.

Methodist Women to meet Jan. 28
The general meeting and supper of the Carlisle United Methodist Women will be Tuesday, Jan. 28 at 6:30 p.m.

Mrs. Phyllis Darrell, mission coordinator for Christian prayer, will be in charge of the program, with emphasis on the annual observance of prayer and self-denial.

Mrs. Ruth Hollar, president, will assist Mrs. Darrell in meal preparation.

Births
Mr. and Mrs. Allen Wayne Truitt of Carlisle announce the birth of a son, January 8, 1986 at the Nicholas County Hospital.

Maternal grandparents are Ann Wigglesworth of Paris and Frankie Price of Cynthiana.

STAGGS
Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Eugene Stagg of Mayfield announce the birth of a son, January 15, 1986 at the Nicholas County Hospital. He weighed seven pounds six ounces and had been named Eugene Elbert Stagg.

Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Mullikin of Mayfield.

Federal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stagg of Mayfield.

ALLEN
Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wilford Allen of Ewing announce the birth of a daughter, January 13, 1986 at the Nicholas County Hospital. She weighed six pounds 14 ounces and had been named Christina Eugene.

Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Allen of Ewing.

Federal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stagg of Mayfield.

REID
Mr. and Mrs. Greg Reid, Carlisle, announce the birth of their second son, Samuel Bernard, January 13, 1986 at Harrison Memorial Hospital, Cynthiana. He weighed eight pounds six ounces.

Maternal grandparents are Col. (Ret.) and Mrs. Richard Hilliard, Baton Rouge, La.

Federal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. James E. Reid, Moorefield.

Green grandparents are Mrs. Ruby Bradley of Moorefield, Mrs. Catherine Reid of Carlisle and Mrs. Ruth Hilliard of Bellair, Tx. Great grandfathers are H.B. LeFevre, Baton Rouge, La.

MIGGS
Mr. and Mrs. Roger Higgs of 1140 Stony Creek Road, Carlisle, announce the birth of a son, Clinton, Austin, January 16, 1986 at Harrison Memorial Hospital. He weighed eight pounds 14 ounces.

Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Jilson Robinson of Moorefield.

Federal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hugg of Carlisle.

Diabetes Group to meet tonight
The Diabetes Support Group will meet Thursday, January 23, 7 p.m. at the Nicholas County Hospital conference room. All old and new diabetics are encouraged to attend.

For more information call Peggy Sullivan, Patient Education director, at 239-2181.

Weight Watchers
Will Help You Get Off To A Great Start in 1986!
JOIN NOW FOR ONLY $10 (A saving of $121)
And Get THE NEW QUICK START PLUS PROGRAM
Weight watchers meets in CARLISLE, KY Carlisle Baptist Church, 1st Street, Carlisle, Ky. 8:00 PM
For more information call 1981-458-7000

Miss Carla Jo Smith is Little Miss F.H.A. winner

Miss Carla Jo Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rick Smith of 4633 Haverhill Road, was the winner of the Little Miss F.H.A. contest held recently by the Nicholas County Future Homemakers of America chapter. A total of $28.28 was collected by all the contestants with the money going for state and local scholarships.

The State Scholarship Project helps provide scholarships to outstanding F.H.A. members who plan to major in home economics and attend a Kentucky College or University.

Amanda Gaunce, Mandy Simons, Sarah Scott, and Liberty English were also contestants.

Carla and her mother will be guests at the annual F.H.A. Spring banquet.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Kern, Mrs. Blanche Vice and Terry Vice visited Mrs. Howers Vice at the Batavia Nursing Home, Batavia, Ohio on Saturday. Mrs. Vice was celebrating her 85th birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Brown of Lexington spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Taylor and family.

Mrs. Francis Rice of Cynthiana and Mrs. Carlisle Lister left Monday for two weeks in Jamaica, British Islands with their parents, Mrs. Frances Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wagner Jr. and son.

Mrs. Billie Ockerman returned home Monday after being a patient in the Nicholas County Hospital for a week due to a kidney infection and pneumonia.

Jeff Tobin celebrated his birthday January 17 at his home on East Union Road. Those attending were Mrs. Tobin and son Duane Tobin, Mrs. and Mrs. Thomas Tobin, Paris, Mrs. Gladys Duncan, Mrs. Blanche Price and Katy, Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Duncan and Jody, Carlisle.

Mrs. Richard Hilliard of Baton Rouge, La. is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Greg Reid, Mr. Reid and family in Carlisle.

Homemaker Clubs hold meetings
Carlisle West Homemakers met January 18 at 1:30 in the home of Mrs. Loretta Irvin. There were nine members and Mrs. Wilson present.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Pauline Bunt. Roll call was answered by telling about something we had done that had turned out to be a joke on ourselves. The devotional was given by Miss Edna Hodgeson, "A Look Towards Spring," written by Mary D. Brewer. The minutes of the December meeting were read and approved and the treasurer's report was given.

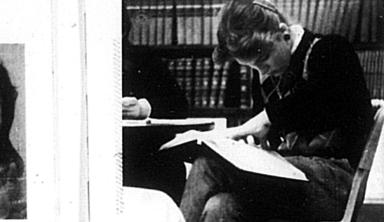

Mrs. Irvin gave a report on how happy the recipients of the Eastern State Hospital were with Madison took the cultural arts and reading reports. Issues and concerns were given by Mrs. Mary Halcomb.

Mrs. Irvin gave the Family Life Homemakers program suggestions for the next two years. Mrs. Halcomb gave the lesson on how to control your weight by careful eating.

Mrs. Irvin and Mrs. Halcomb prepared four of the recipes found in our lesson. We enjoyed them very much.

Miss Marie Lawrence led the lesson in recreation, after which the meeting was adjourned.

East Union
The East Union Homemakers met Thursday night at the extension of the home of Mrs. Louise Thompson.

Miss Carla Jo Smith

UofL planetarium will bring back Halley's Comet

Record crowds and popular demand have persuaded Hanch Memorial Planetarium director Tom Boone to bring back "A Comet Called Halley," a multimedia presentation detailing the fiery phenomenon's origin, superstitions and return.

From Jan. 4 through March 11, the show can be seen at the University of Louisville planetarium at 7 p.m. on Wednesdays and Fridays, and at 2 p.m. and 4:30 p.m. on Sundays. Admission is $2 for adults and $1 for children.

Historically, the comet has been blamed for an upsurge of floods, plagues and disasters by superstition observers. "A Comet Called Halley" will address the myths that trail the comet as closely as its tail, as well as its history, chemical makeup and tips on how to view it.

Halley's comet has not been seen by the unaided eye since 1910, and will not appear again until 2062. When visible this year, the comet will be only 24 million miles from earth, a short distance to astronomers who state that the sun is 93 million miles away.

Still, the comet does not come close enough for scientists to know exact composition. They do know, however, that its head is a mass of ice, and its tail, which always points directly away from the sun, is gas and dust.

For an update on the latest substance of Halley's comet and tips on how to spot it, call the planetarium's Halley's comet hotline at 588-SKYS. For more information on planetarium shows, including special children's presentations every Saturday at 12:30 p.m. and 2 p.m., call the planetarium at 588-6600.

Library research

Janie Holsey, a student in Brenda Lawrence's eighth grade class, is pictured doing research in the library of Nicholas County Elementary School.

Janie Holsey, a student in Brenda Lawrence's eighth grade class, is pictured doing research in the library of Nicholas County Elementary School.

Vacation information

George Ingham, Nicholas County High School freshman, fills out forms requesting information on vacations on part of the NCB program to keep students in school.

First graders study Eskimos

Students in Charlene Harris' first grade class at Nicholas County Elementary School are studying Eskimos in their class. Pictured are, from left, Tracie Burns, Amy Sparks and Kelly Crawford.

Accident on 68 reported

Trapper Bill Hays of the Kentucky State Police investigated a one-vehicle injury accident which occurred at approximately 9 p.m. on January 18, 1986 on U.S. 68.

The driver involved was the late Joseph H. of South Shore, Ky., operating a 1982 Ford Taurus.

Kentucky second in tobacco jobs

Kentucky ranks second in the nation among states with jobs related directly to tobacco, according to a report prepared by Chase Econometrics, an economic forecasting firm.

The report was commissioned by the Tobacco Institute, a Washington-based tobacco industry group.

According to the report, North Carolina ranks first in jobs directly related to the tobacco industry with 90,000. Kentucky is second with 50,000.

The report proves what we already know — that tobacco is important to Kentucky's economy," said Agriculture Commissioner David E. Bowtell.

But the report also shows that tobacco is important to the economies of states where we would initially expect it to be," Bowtell added.

For example, New York leads the nation in jobs and income indirectly related to the tobacco industry, that is retail and wholesale sales and advertising. New York gains approximately $4.1 billion and 100,000 jobs from tobacco.

Kentucky ranks 15th in indirect income, with $1.08 billion and ranks seventh in jobs, with 7,000. Figures for indirect gain do not include jobs or income generated by farming, factories or suppliers.

"The report contains some other very interesting figures on tobacco income," Bowtell said. "For example, consumers spend $22 billion on tobacco products in 1985, but the tobacco farmers received only $2.3 billion of that amount."

"Farmers aren't getting rich off tobacco," the Commissioner added. "The reports also show that the U.S. taxpayer is a major beneficiary of tobacco sales."

The report shows that manufacturers took the farmers' $15 billion of lost and turned it into $13.8 billion in tobacco products. The manufacturers and their suppliers kept 66 percent of that amount. The remaining $4.9 billion went to the government as federal excise taxes on cigarettes, corporate income tax, Social Security and employee insurance.

In the next step of the process, wholesalers paid $1.8 billion for the finished products and sold them for $2.1 billion. That is, they made a profit of $300 million. The rest of that increase in value went to the government. That is, $47 billion went for state cigarette excise and other taxes.

Finally, then sold $1.8 billion for the finished products and resellers to consumers for $2.3 billion. Taxes took $1.1 billion of that markup.

Altogether, of the $23.3 billion taken on tobacco products in this country, federal, state and local governments collected $13.5 billion in taxes. I think those who oppose the tobacco program because of its costs should understand the contribution to the economy and to government," Bowtell said.

"The fact is that tobacco pays a contribution to the operation of the government. And it certainly provides a livelihood for literally thousands of Kentucky families," Bowtell added.

LERMANS

KNOWN FOR BETTER VALUES

AFTER inventory sale

Selected Group Ladies' Open Front FLEECE JACKETS $9.88

Selected Group LEVI'S DENIM JEANS $12.88

Selected Group LADIES' JOG SETS $15.49

Selected Group LADIES' WESTERN JACKETS $17.88

Selected Group FLANNEL SHIRTS $9.88

Selected Group LADIES' WESTERN SWEATERS $7.88

Selected Group MEN'S HANDBAGS $6.00

UofL planetarium will bring back Halley's Comet

Record crowds and popular demand have persuaded Hanch Memorial Planetarium director Tom Boone to bring back "A Comet Called Halley," a multimedia presentation detailing the fiery phenomenon's origin, superstitions and return.

From Jan. 4 through March 11, the show can be seen at the University of Louisville planetarium at 7 p.m. on Wednesdays and Fridays, and at 2 p.m. and 4:30 p.m. on Sundays. Admission is $2 for adults and $1 for children.

Historically, the comet has been blamed for an upsurge of floods, plagues and disasters by superstition observers. "A Comet Called Halley" will address the myths that trail the comet as closely as its tail, as well as its history, chemical makeup and tips on how to view it.

Halley's comet has not been seen by the unaided eye since 1910, and will not appear again until 2062. When visible this year, the comet will be only 24 million miles from earth, a short distance to astronomers who state that the sun is 93 million miles away.

Still, the comet does not come close enough for scientists to know exact composition. They do know, however, that its head is a mass of ice, and its tail, which always points directly away from the sun, is gas and dust.

For an update on the latest substance of Halley's comet and tips on how to spot it, call the planetarium's Halley's comet hotline at 588-SKYS. For more information on planetarium shows, including special children's presentations every Saturday at 12:30 p.m. and 2 p.m., call the planetarium at 588-6600.

Library research

Janie Holsey, a student in Brenda Lawrence's eighth grade class, is pictured doing research in the library of Nicholas County Elementary School.

Janie Holsey, a student in Brenda Lawrence's eighth grade class, is pictured doing research in the library of Nicholas County Elementary School.

Vacation information

George Ingham, Nicholas County High School freshman, fills out forms requesting information on vacations on part of the NCB program to keep students in school.

First graders study Eskimos

Students in Charlene Harris' first grade class at Nicholas County Elementary School are studying Eskimos in their class. Pictured are, from left, Tracie Burns, Amy Sparks and Kelly Crawford.

Accident on 68 reported

Trapper Bill Hays of the Kentucky State Police investigated a one-vehicle injury accident which occurred at approximately 9 p.m. on January 18, 1986 on U.S. 68.

The driver involved was the late Joseph H. of South Shore, Ky., operating a 1982 Ford Taurus.

Kentucky second in tobacco jobs

Kentucky ranks second in the nation among states with jobs related directly to tobacco, according to a report prepared by Chase Econometrics, an economic forecasting firm.

The report was commissioned by the Tobacco Institute, a Washington-based tobacco industry group.

According to the report, North Carolina ranks first in jobs directly related to the tobacco industry with 90,000. Kentucky is second with 50,000.

The report proves what we already know — that tobacco is important to Kentucky's economy," said Agriculture Commissioner David E. Bowtell.

But the report also shows that tobacco is important to the economies of states where we would initially expect it to be," Bowtell added.

For example, New York leads the nation in jobs and income indirectly related to the tobacco industry, that is retail and wholesale sales and advertising. New York gains approximately $4.1 billion and 100,000 jobs from tobacco.

Kentucky ranks 15th in indirect income, with $1.08 billion and ranks seventh in jobs, with 7,000. Figures for indirect gain do not include jobs or income generated by farming, factories or suppliers.

"The report contains some other very interesting figures on tobacco income," Bowtell said. "For example, consumers spend $22 billion on tobacco products in 1985, but the tobacco farmers received only $2.3 billion of that amount."

"Farmers aren't getting rich off tobacco," the Commissioner added. "The reports also show that the U.S. taxpayer is a major beneficiary of tobacco sales."

The report shows that manufacturers took the farmers' $15 billion of lost and turned it into $13.8 billion in tobacco products. The manufacturers and their suppliers kept 66 percent of that amount. The remaining $4.9 billion went to the government as federal excise taxes on cigarettes, corporate income tax, Social Security and employee insurance.

In the next step of the process, wholesalers paid $1.8 billion for the finished products and sold them for $2.1 billion. That is, they made a profit of $300 million. The rest of that increase in value went to the government. That is, $47 billion went for state cigarette excise and other taxes.

Finally, then sold $1.8 billion for the finished products and resellers to consumers for $2.3 billion. Taxes took $1.1 billion of that markup.

Altogether, of the $23.3 billion taken on tobacco products in this country, federal, state and local governments collected $13.5 billion in taxes. I think those who oppose the tobacco program because of its costs should understand the contribution to the economy and to government," Bowtell said.

"The fact is that tobacco pays a contribution to the operation of the government. And it certainly provides a livelihood for literally thousands of Kentucky families," Bowtell added.

LERMANS

KNOWN FOR BETTER VALUES

Selected Group Ladies' Open Front FLEECE JACKETS $9.88

Selected Group LEVI'S DENIM JEANS $12.88

Selected Group LADIES' JOG SETS $15.49

Selected Group LADIES' WESTERN JACKETS $17.88

Selected Group FLANNEL SHIRTS $9.88

Selected Group LADIES' WESTERN SWEATERS $7.88

Selected Group MEN'S HANDBAGS $6.00

Selected Group LADIES' WESTERN SWEATERS $7.88

Selected Group MEN'S HANDBAGS $6.00

Selected Group LADIES' WESTERN SWEATERS $7.88

Selected Group MEN'S HANDBAGS $6.00

Selected Group LADIES' WESTERN SWEATERS $7.88

Selected Group MEN'S HANDBAGS $6.00

Selected Group LADIES' WESTERN SWEATERS $7.88

Selected Group MEN'S HANDBAGS $6.00

Selected Group LADIES' WESTERN SWEATERS $7.88

Selected Group MEN'S HANDBAGS $6.00

Selected Group LADIES' WESTERN SWEATERS $7.88

Selected Group MEN'S HANDBAGS $6.00

Selected Group LADIES' WESTERN SWEATERS $7.88

Selected Group MEN'S HANDBAGS $6.00

Selected Group LADIES' WESTERN SWEATERS $7.88

Selected Group MEN'S HANDBAGS $6.00

Selected Group LADIES' WESTERN SWEATERS $7.88

Selected Group MEN'S HANDBAGS $6.00

Selected Group LADIES' WESTERN SWEATERS $7.88

Selected Group MEN'S HANDBAGS $6.00

Selected Group LADIES' WESTERN SWEATERS $7.88

Selected Group MEN'S HANDBAGS $6.00

Selected Group LADIES' WESTERN SWEATERS $7.88

Selected Group MEN'S HANDBAGS $6.00

Selected Group LADIES' WESTERN SWEATERS $7.88

Selected Group MEN'S HANDBAGS $6.00